Senate Approves $7.2 Billion Aid Bill

$250 Million More Lopped Off Measure

Vote Is 61 To 5; Bill Goes To Conference

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Senate tonight passed a trimmed-down foreign aid bill authorizing $7,286,250,000 to erect military and economic defenses against Soviet Communism. The total was $1,213,750,000 less than President Truman asked.

In its closing action, the Senate chopped an additional quarter billion dollars off the $7,535,750,000 figure recommended by its Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees.

The roll-call vote on final passage was 61 to 5.

The big bill now goes to conference with the House to compromise differences in Senate and House versions.

Slash Is Voted

The House sliced $1,001,250,000 off the President's $8,500,000,000 request in its version passed two weeks ago.

Final Senate action came after more than 12 hours of continuous session.

In hammering out a completed bill, the Senate refused either to cut funds as much as an extra $500,000,000 or to restore Mr. Truman's $8,500,000,000 figure. It also rejected an attempt to put the whole program under a single new administrator.

But in a surprise move which caught Democratic leaders off guard, it voted 36-34 to slash $250,000,000 off authorizations for economic aid to Europe.

A proposal to apply an equal cut to military aid for Europe was rejected, while the move to give the President his full $8,500,000,000 was soundly defeated 56 to 17.

The only increase in the committee bill was an extra $37,500,000 voted for economic assistance to Africa and the Near East.

Europe Military Aid Cut

The Senate voted, 42 to 25, to lop off $37,000,000 of the $5,043,350,000 carried in the bill for military aid to Europe.

The amendment cutting off the $37,000,000 was offered by Sen. Dworshak (D-Idaho).

The bulk of the funds—about 80 per cent—in both Senate and House bills apply to military aid, with Europe getting most of it.

Congress must later vote actual funds to carry out the authorizations now approved by both branches.

As passed by the Senate the bill authorized $5,976,000,000 for military aid and $1,310,250,000 for economic aid. Most of the latter would go to increase production of military supplies overseas.

Mrs. Peron Won't Seek Argentina's Vice-Presidency

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 31 (AP)—Mrs. Eva Peron tearfully told Argentina tonight she would not seek the vice-presidency as the running mate of her husband, President Juan Person, in the Nov 11 election.

The president's blonde wife, speaking from the presidential residence, said she had reached an "irrevocable decision to renounce the high honor" given her Aug. 22 when 250,000 pro-government workers urged her and her husband at a big rally to "rule Argentina forever."

Her final decision apparently was first disclosed at a special secret session of the Peronista Party's high command.

As she finished her nine-minute broadcast, the superior council of the Peronista Party declared that aging Vice President Hortensio Quijano will run again with Peron.

Connally Blasts Douglas' Peiping Recognition Plan

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas proposed today that the U. S. recognize Red China, and in the ensuing uproar Sen. Connally (D-Tex) accused him of making "fool statements."

Douglas' proposal, made in a San Francisco interview, led to an angry Senate debate in which Sen. Welker (R-Idaho) called the Justice a "high administration spokesman" whose views might portend recognition of Communist regimes in Asia, and Europe as well.

No one arose in the Senate to back the Douglas plan. Sen. McMahon (D-Conn), an early New Dealer like the justice himself, said Douglas was "a private citizen without influence on the course of American foreign policy."

Douglas Ardent Traveler

Douglas, an ardent traveler and mountain climber in distant parts of the world, has been spending his summer on an expedition along the southern frontiers of Russia and China.

In an interview he advocated recognition of Red China as a means of breaking its political ties with Russia. He said recognition would give the free world "a real political victory." He said it would capitalize on the struggle between Chinese nationalism and Russia's drive to solidify the Far East.

Welker opened the Senate dispute by asking unanimous consent to print a newspaper account of the Douglas interview in the Congressional Record.

Sen. Connally Objects

Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, objected, shouting;

"We do not intend to recognize Red China. Justice Douglas is not secretary of state. Douglas is not president of the United States. He never will be."

Declaring that "I don't agree with Mr. Douglas," Connally shouted:

"I think he ought to stay home instead of roaming all around the world and Asia making fool statements."

Reading, Pa., Veteran Elected VFW Leader

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—Frank C. Hilton, Reading, Pa., 42-year-old brokerage salesman and Army veteran, was elected national commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars today.

The veterans selected Los Angeles for next year's meeting.

Possible Early End To Copper Strike Is Seen

Kennecott Agrees To 15-Cent Boost

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A possible early end to the nationwide copper strike was signalled today in agreement on a 15-cents-an-hour raise for workers in the Salt Lake City plants of Kennecott Copper Corporation.

While only 3,400 workers were affected by this agreement, it was seen as a possible pattern for the 58,000 who have been on strike since Monday.

Kennecott is one of the big copper producers, the others being Phelps-Dodge, Anaconda, and American Smelter and Refining. In all, about 100,000 workers have been idle, since AFL union members have refused to cross picket lines set up by the striking mine, mill and smelter workers, an independent union ousted from the CIO last year.

Agreement Is Compromise

The Kennecott agreement on 15 cents was a compromise between the 16 cents asked by the unions and the 14.85 cents offered by management. These figures themselves represented Concessions made on both sides since contract negotiations were begun. The industry's wage range has been from $1.31 an hour for laborers to $1.62 for miners.

President Truman only last night invoked the emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor law in an effort to end the strike, which has cut off vital supplies from defense production needs. He said the walkouts, "if permitted to occur or continue, will imperil t he national health and safety."

In invoking the law, Mr. Truman set up a three-man board of inquiry to make a report to him by next Tuesday. He could then get an 80-day injunction against the strike.

Board Holds Meeting

Union leaders had said previously that their men would go back to work if an injunction were obtained, an agreement negotiated or if the government seized the mines and smelters. The 15-cent Kennecott agreement is still subject to approval by the union members.

Mr. Truman's board held a preliminary meeting today, calling in all parties, but the Kennecott negotiators withdrew after a short time and then announced late in the afternoon they had reached agreement.

Chicago Child, 5, Brutally Slain

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP) — The body of a five-year-old girl, her brains dashed out against a concrete slab, was found in a hobo jungle on the west side today.

Police said the child apparently was swung through the air by the ankles and her head smashed against a makeshift concrete fireplace.

The victim was pretty, blonde Yvonne Georgiana Biritz, of suburban Cicero. The child apparently was not raped, Coroner's Physician Cornelius Dore said.

Two pieces of concrete which formed a backlog for hobo fires were stained with brain tissue and hair. The little girl's body, bearing scratches on the legs near the ankles, had been dragged some 25 feet away and left in a weed-grown lot. A trail, clearly marked through high sunflowers and bushes, led to nearby railroad tracks.

An empty pint wine bottle and a candy wrapper were found near the concrete blocks. A blood-stained sunflower stalk was broken in two, evidence of the violence with which the child was swung through the air.

British Jet Bomber Breaks Record For Atlantic Flight

GANDER, Newfoundland, Aug. 31 (AP)—A British twin-jet bomber with the sun as its pacemaker blazed across the Atlantic today in four hours and 19 minutes, bettering easily the unofficial record set Feb. 21 by a sister plane.

Pilot R. P. Beamont, 31, a World War II ace, guided the Royal Air Force Canberra at an average speed of 480.2 miles an hour from Aldergrove Field, Belfast, North Ireland, to Gander. The plane covered 2,072.79 miles on a Great Circle route.

The British Air Ministry announced the time and speed, which are subject to confirmation.

The streamlined warplane, the world's first jet bomber, almost kept up with the sun on the westward dash. The sun covers the same distance in three and a half hours at 600 miles an hour.

The sister plane crossed the Atlantic in February in four hours and 40 minutes at an average speed of about 445 miles an hour. That flight was not recognized as an official mark because the British Royal Aero Club was not asked to send official observers.

But the club had timers on hand today representing the Federation Aeronautique Internationale — governing body for official international records.

Probers, In Dramatic Report, Urge Crusade Against Crime

Committee Slaps Warren, O'Dwyer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Senate Crime Committee, in a dramatic final report, said today democracy is vanishing in a number of American communities held "captive" by racketeers and grafting public officials and infested by the evils of illicit drug traffic.

Winding up its 15-month investigation of nationwide crime, the committee urged the nation's cities, big and small, to band in a fight against the twin scourges of organized crime and corruption.

The committee, whose televised hearings thrilled millions with close-ups of bigtime racket chiefs, gamblers, hoodlums, twitching drug addicts and suspect political leaders, goes out of existence at midnight tonight.

Cleanup Crusade Urged

Calling for a coast-to-coast crusade to clean up America, the committee declared the time is ripe now because an aroused populace is "rising up to demand that police and prosecutors exert greater vigilance in tracking down and convicting the criminals who thrive under the protective umbrella of official corruption."

The report took slaps at Florida's Gov. Fuller Warren and former May. William O'Dwyer of New York, now U. S. ambassador to Mexico.

It blasted Warren for his "persistent refusal" to testify before the committee under oath about gambling-political tieups in Florida, and, somewhat more softly than in an earlier report, criticized O'Dwyer as a friend of hoodlums.

In Tallahassee, the Florida state capital, Gov. Warren gave a tense "no comment at this time" reply to newsmen when asked about the committee's report.

Warren has insisted for months that his administration has suppressed gambling that flourished for 50 years before he took office.

Describing its inquiry as "a powerful searchlight, exposing widespread national and local crime conditions to public gaze," the Senate committee called for the creation of privately financed local crime commissions across the land.

And it urged that a national crime coordinating committee, launched with a $100,000 grant by Congress, be set up to guide the local commissions.

"Captive Communities"

The committee's 103-page report declared that some U. S. cities and towns have become "captive communities," held in virtual bondage by racket overlords and political grafters, because honest people have lost their voice in their own local government.

And it warned that the underworld is now greedily reaching out for new revenues, fattening on a lucrative traffic in narcotics. It said the victims have been "thousands" of teen-agers and school children deliberately turned into drug addicts by being lured into "thrill" experiments with marijuana reefers, heroin and other dope.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted today to cut the federal tax on telegraph, cable and radio messages to 15 per cent of the sum charged the sender.

Mother, Not To Be Outdone By Son, Makes 'Chute Jump

CONCORD, Calif., Aug. 31 (AP)—Mrs. Edith Soder, an attractive 37-year-old brunette housewife, never had made a parachute jump.

But yesterday she watched her 21-year-old paratrooper son, Melvin, make his 58th leap from a plane over Buchanan Field.

Not to be outdone, Mrs. Soder went aloft and jumped from 1,500 feet. She landed safely.

Melvin jumped first to test the wind over the field.

Then his mother climbed into a plane to make not only her first descent by 'chute but also her first flight in a small plane.

Utah Polio Tests Open Next Week

PROVO, Utah, Aug. 31 (AP)—The first experiment to prevent poliomyelitis paralysis in humans, through inoculation with gamma globulin, will begin in Provo next Tuesday.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced today that Dr. William McD. Hammon, on leave from University of Pittsburgh, will conduct the experiment.

Children in the age group of three to eight years will be used in the tests, which will be conducted actively through Sept. 8. The foundation says it hopes to try out the usefulness of gamma globulin, a blood fraction, on 5,000 of the 12,000 children in the age group in Utah County.

Foundation officials said this blood fraction, a portion of human blood containing a large number of anti-bodies, has proved successful in preventing paralysis in monkeys suffering from the crippling disease.

Gamma globulin is extracted from blood donated to the Red Cross. It is not expected to be a polio cure or preventative. The foundation hopes only to gain successful results in curbing paralysis in those who contract the disease.

Thrill Driver Dies

TEXARKANA, Tex., Aug. 31 (AP)—Jimmy Lynch, the thrill-driver who entertained millions, died today.

The 50-year-old Texarkana man died in a local hospital of cirrhosis of the liver. He had been ill for several months.

Jimmy Lynch's death-dodgers — cars painted with the skull and crossbones—had made him a great attraction at world and state fairs.

Air And Sea Assault Aids Allied Drive

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Saturday, Sept. 1 (AP) — Hard-fighting Allied troops gained up to four miles in East Korea Friday under cover of one of the heaviest warship and plane assaults of the Korean war.

Allied headquarters said today that Communist resistance to the drivew as heavy. Counter-attacks by Red battalions were repulsed.

Supporting the drive, warships off the east coast poured shells into Red assembly points, ammunition dumps, factories, rail and road arteries.

The Reds were shoved off one key peak.

The Peiping Red radio, quoting an Aug. 31 front line dispatch, said the Communists had opened counterattacks in the East Korean sector after "checking the reckless drives of the American and Rhee's troops."

Syngman Rhee is president of the South Korean republic.

Peiping claimed that more than 7,700 U. N. and South Korean troops were "put out of action" in Korea in the five-day period ended Aug. 25.

Alvancing behind heavy artillery barrages, the Allied forces struck northward at four main points along a 16-mile sector between the east coast and Yanggu. This area is from seven to 15 miles north of parallel 38.

AP photographer Robert Otey reported from the front that between one and two battalions of Korean Reds were routed from a 2,400-foot peak. Red casualties were described as heavy.

That action, northeast of Yanggu, was just to the south of positions occupied late Thursday by a new Communist division, estimated at some 8,000 men .

Java Volcano Erupts

JAKARTA, Indonesia, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Keloet volcano, which killed thousands of persons in 1919, broke loose today with a 45-minute eruption of ash, steam and stones which clouded hundreds of square miles of East Java. Hot mud sluiced down its slopes.

FBI Arrests Three More Alleged Reds

Held At Los Angeles Under $50,000 Bonds

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP) — Three more men were arrested by the FBI here today on charges of conspiracy to advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

Ten other men and two women previously were charged here with the same offense and are currently held in lieu of $50,000 bail each.

Those arrested today are Frank Carlson, 37; Frank E. Spector, 56, and Ben Dobbs, 39. Carlson was taken in custody at his home, Spector while working as a painter in an apartment house and Dobbs at a movie theater, FBI agents said.

They said Carlson and Spector are not U. S. citizens and that deportation proceedings against them are pending.

The three were taken immediately before a U. S. commissioner for arraignment.

The commissioner set their bonds at $50,000 despite their pleas that such a high amount was tantamount to a denial of bail. Carlson pointed out he is already under $5,000 bail on a deportation charge and Spector said he has furnished $20,000 bonds—$5,000 on a deportation charge and $10,000 on a charge of violating the McCarren Act.

Preliminary hearing for the three was set for Sept. 14, although an assistant U. S. attorney said their case would be presented to the Federal Grand Jury in about 10 days. They were not represented by counsel.

At Washington J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said in a statement that Carlson is chairman of the Communist Party's defense committee in Los Angeles.

Acheson Dares Russia To Sign Jap Peace Pact

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson left for the Japanese peace conference today after challenging Russia to sign the treaty if it sincerely wants peace.

Acheson said the conference opening at San Francisco Sept. 4 "will provide a test for those nations that really want peace and those that do not."

He predicted that the "vast majority" of the 51 or more nations sending delegates will sign.

The Soviet delegation, headed by Andrei Gromyko, is en route with the avowed purpose of pressing for terms favored by the Communists. Acheson's parting statement appeared aimed at the likelihood of a Soviet holdout, but did not mention Russia specifically.

The secretary and most of the American delegation traveled aboard a chartered plane. Included was Ambassador John Foster Dulles, who termed the Pacific settlement "a peace of collective security."

Dulles, who negotiated the Japanese treaty, issued a statement in which he pointed to that pact, to a mutual defense treaty which the United States signed with the Philippines yesterday, and the signing tomorrow of a mutual defense treaty with Australia and New Zealand.

"Peace is being reestablished in the Pacific," he said. "This new peace is not the old kind of peace, which failed. It is a peace of collective security."

"Stubborn Irishman" Wins Place Aboard Gromyko Car

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP) — The Chicago Sun-Times said today Andrei A. Gromyko and party passed through Chicago aboard a railroad car they were "reluctantly sharing" with a "stubborn Irishman."

The newspaper said J. F. Butler, San Francisco, a printer and pressman for a job shop, had been on an eastern vacation trip and had obtained reservations aboard the New York Central's Lake Shore Limited prior to those of the Gromyko party.

"The Butlers tried to board the (train) pulling out of New York Wednesday night," the newspaper said. "But they were stopped by policemen who said they couldn't get aboard the car on which they had their reservations."

It quoted Butler as saying the car had been reserved by the Russians traveling to the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco.

The newspaper said Butler related:

"They even started taking my baggage off. I told them, I'm no Russian—I'm Irish, and I'm going to get on that car."

The story said railroad special agents were summoned and verified the Butlers' reservations were made earlier than those of Gromyko and his party. They decided to honor the reservations.

The Butlers then had a compartment in the middle of the security-guarded car, only a few compartments from Gromyko himself.

Enemy Says Kaesong Area Bombed Again

Joy Dispatches U. N. Officers To Scene

TOKYO, Saturday, Sept. 1 (AP) — The Allies today dispatched investigators to Kaesong to check on a new Red charge that a U. S. plane made a bombing attack early this morning near quarters of the chief Red truce negotiator.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief Allied truce negotiator, took action only a few hours after the Red charge was filed together with this challenge:

"Should you refuse to come, such a choice is up to you."

The bombing charge was the latest in a mounting series which the Communists have piled one upon the other after breaking off the Kaesong talks 10 days ago.

U. N. Refutes Other Charges

Today headquarters said investigations refuted two other Red charges.

That Allied troops were involved in shootings and entry into the Kaesong neutral zone Aug. 30; that an Allied plane dropped flares in the zone Aug. 29.

Headquarters said planes did drop flares at 3:40 a. m. Aug. 29 —but at points 20 and 25 miles north of Kaesong.

The Reds' veiled suggestion that the Allies might refuse to check the new charge fitted into a propaganda pattern which they have followed since charging a previous such air attack.

Although the Allies promptly investigated and then denied a Red charge that a U. S. plane bombed the neutral Kaesong zone the night of Aug. 22, the Communists have continued to insist that a full investigation never was pursued.

Newsmen In Party

For the first time, Allied officers were accompanied by newsmen in an investigation of Red charges.

The new charge first was broadcast today over the Red radio at Peiping.

The investigating officers sent to Kaesong included Air Force Col. Andrew J. Kinney and Marine Corps Col. J. C. Murray.

After the Peiping broadcast, a Red liaison officer reported the alleged bombing incident to the Allies' Munsan truce camp by radio telephone. His report included a request that the Allies send investigators.

Resumption Of Talks Seen

Kinney and Murray are the same two liaison officers who checked a previous such bombing charge which the Reds used to break off the Kaesong truce talks Aug. 26. They denied that an Allied plane was involved.

The Peiping broadcast said that two bombs were dropped at 12:30 a. m. today and fell less than half a mile from the residence of Lt. Gen. Nam Il, chief Red negotiator, at Pingkotong near Kaesong.

The Reds gave no hint that they want to resume negotiations.

Nevertheless, an Allied spokesman declared "there is no indication that there will be a permanent breakdown" in the talks.

Capehart Target Of Truman Barb

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP) — President Truman blasted anew today at a "terrible" provision in the new price control law and said he doubted whether its author, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), understood it.

Mr. Truman expressed his views in a personal letter to Capehart, typed on pale green note paper. It was the latest in a series of select barbs the letter-writing President has tossed into the mails during his career in the White House.

It was in response to a letter from Capehart demanding to know whether Mr. Truman would guarantee the people a lower cost of living if the controls law is changed to conform to the administration's ideas.

Capehart's letter said that only a year ago Mr. Truman was saying that price controls were not necessary at all in the "foreseeable future." The senator raised the question whether Mr. Truman was not trying now to "use the Congress as a scapegoat for poor judgment."

The Capehart amendment, one of three provisions Mr. Truman wants removed from the control law, allows the seller to pass on to consumers all cost increases between the start of the Korean war and July 26, 1951.

Capehart released the Truman letter at a Senate Banking Committee hearing on changes in the law.

In an interview he advocated recognition of Red China as a means of breaking its political ties with Russia. He said recognition would give the free world "a real political victory." He said it would capitalize on the struggle between Chinese nationalism and Russia's drive to solidify the Far East.

Welker opened the Senate dispute by asking unanimous consent to print a newspaper account of the Douglas interview in the Congressional Record.

Sen. Connally Objects

Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, objected, shouting;

"We do not intend to recognize Red China. Justice Douglas is not secretary of state. Douglas is not president of the United States. He never will be."

Declaring that "I don't agree with Mr. Douglas," Connally shouted:

"I think he ought to stay home instead of roaming all around the world and Asia making fool statements."

Hilton was moved up from senior vice commander-in-chief at the closing sessions of the veterans 52nd annual national encampment. He succeeds Charles C. Ralls, of Seattle, Wash.

The veterans selected Los Angeles for next year's meeting.

Possible Early End To Copper Strike Is Seen

Kennecott Agrees To 15-Cent Boost

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A possible early end to the nationwide copper strike was signalled today in agreement on a 15-cents-an-hour raise for workers in the Salt Lake City plants of Kennecott Copper Corporation.

While only 3,400 workers were affected by this agreement, it was seen as a possible pattern for the 58,000 who have been on strike since Monday.

Kennecott is one of the big copper producers, the others being Phelps-Dodge, Anaconda, and American Smelter and Refining. In all, about 100,000 workers have been idle, since AFL union members have refused to cross picket lines set up by the striking mine, mill and smelter workers, an independent union ousted from the CIO last year.

Agreement Is Compromise

The Kennecott agreement on 15 cents was a compromise between the 16 cents asked by the unions and the 14.85 cents offered by management. These figures themselves represented Concessions made on both sides since contract negotiations were begun. The industry's wage range has been from $1.31 an hour for laborers to $1.62 for miners.

President Truman only last night invoked the emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor law in an effort to end the strike, which has cut off vital supplies from defense production needs. He said the walkouts, "if permitted to occur or continue, will imperil t he national health and safety."

In invoking the law, Mr. Truman set up a three-man board of inquiry to make a report to him by next Tuesday. He could then get an 80-day injunction against the strike.

Board Holds Meeting

Union leaders had said previously that their men would go back to work if an injunction were obtained, an agreement negotiated or if the government seized the mines and smelters. The 15-cent Kennecott agreement is still subject to approval by the union members.

Mr. Truman's board held a preliminary meeting today, calling in all parties, but the Kennecott negotiators withdrew after a short time and then announced late in the afternoon they had reached agreement.

Chicago Child, 5, Brutally Slain

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP) — The body of a five-year-old girl, her brains dashed out against a concrete slab, was found in a hobo jungle on the west side today.

Police said the child apparently was swung through the air by the ankles and her head smashed against a makeshift concrete fireplace.

The victim was pretty, blonde Yvonne Georgiana Biritz, of suburban Cicero. The child apparently was not raped, Coroner's Physician Cornelius Dore said.

Two pieces of concrete which formed a backlog for hobo fires were stained with brain tissue and hair. The little girl's body, bearing scratches on the legs near the ankles, had been dragged some 25 feet away and left in a weed-grown lot. A trail, clearly marked through high sunflowers and bushes, led to nearby railroad tracks.

An empty pint wine bottle and a candy wrapper were found near the concrete blocks. A blood-stained sunflower stalk was broken in two, evidence of the violence with which the child was swung through the air.

British Jet Bomber Breaks Record For Atlantic Flight

GANDER, Newfoundland, Aug. 31 (AP)—A British twin-jet bomber with the sun as its pacemaker blazed across the Atlantic today in four hours and 19 minutes, bettering easily the unofficial record set Feb. 21 by a sister plane.

Pilot R. P. Beamont, 31, a World War II ace, guided the Royal Air Force Canberra at an average speed of 480.2 miles an hour from Aldergrove Field, Belfast, North Ireland, to Gander. The plane covered 2,072.79 miles on a Great Circle route.

The British Air Ministry announced the time and speed, which are subject to confirmation.

The streamlined warplane, the world's first jet bomber, almost kept up with the sun on the westward dash. The sun covers the same distance in three and a half hours at 600 miles an hour.

The sister plane crossed the Atlantic in February in four hours and 40 minutes at an average speed of about 445 miles an hour. That flight was not recognized as an official mark because the British Royal Aero Club was not asked to send official observers.

But the club had timers on hand today representing the Federation Aeronautique Internationale — governing body for official international records.

"Veep" Gets "Cattlemen's" Hat

Vice President Alben W. Barkley gets a fitting with a new hat presented to him at Washington yesterday by Charlotte Simmen, 18, Little Rock, Ark., who is "Miss Arkansas." The hat is a "cattlemen's" style. The "Veep," after one look at tall, brunette Charlotte, exclaimed: "Ain't nature grand?"

Probers, In Dramatic Report, Urge Crusade Against Crime

Committee Slaps Warren, O'Dwyer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Senate Crime Committee, in a dramatic final report, said today democracy is vanishing in a number of American communities held "captive" by racketeers and grafting public officials and infested by the evils of illicit drug traffic.

Winding up its 15-month investigation of nationwide crime, the committee urged the nation's cities, big and small, to band in a fight against the twin scourges of organized crime and corruption.

The committee, whose televised hearings thrilled millions with close-ups of bigtime racket chiefs, gamblers, hoodlums, twitching drug addicts and suspect political leaders, goes out of existence at midnight tonight.

Cleanup Crusade Urged

Calling for a coast-to-coast crusade to clean up America, the committee declared the time is ripe now because an aroused populace is "rising up to demand that police and prosecutors exert greater vigilance in tracking down and convicting the criminals who thrive under the protective umbrella of official corruption."

The report took slaps at Florida's Gov. Fuller Warren and former May. William O'Dwyer of New York, now U. S. ambassador to Mexico.

It blasted Warren for his "persistent refusal" to testify before the committee under oath about gambling-political tieups in Florida, and, somewhat more softly than in an earlier report, criticized O'Dwyer as a friend of hoodlums.

In Tallahassee, the Florida state capital, Gov. Warren gave a tense "no comment at this time" reply to newsmen when asked about the committee's report.

Warren has insisted for months that his administration has suppressed gambling that flourished for 50 years before he took office.

Describing its inquiry as "a powerful searchlight, exposing widespread national and local crime conditions to public gaze," the Senate committee called for the creation of privately financed local crime commissions across the land.

And it urged that a national crime coordinating committee, launched with a $100,000 grant by Congress, be set up to guide the local commissions.

"Captive Communities"

The committee's 103-page report declared that some U. S. cities and towns have become "captive communities," held in virtual bondage by racket overlords and political grafters, because honest people have lost their voice in their own local government.

And it warned that the underworld is now greedily reaching out for new revenues, fattening on a lucrative traffic in narcotics. It said the victims have been "thousands" of teen-agers and school children deliberately turned into drug addicts by being lured into "thrill" experiments with marijuana reefers, heroin and other dope.

Message Tax Cut Voted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted today to cut the federal tax on telegraph, cable and radio messages to 15 per cent of the sum charged the sender.

Mother, Not To Be Outdone By Son, Makes 'Chute Jump

CONCORD, Calif., Aug. 31 (AP)—Mrs. Edith Soder, an attractive 37-year-old brunette housewife, never had made a parachute jump.

But yesterday she watched her 21-year-old paratrooper son, Melvin, make his 58th leap from a plane over Buchanan Field.

Not to be outdone, Mrs. Soder went aloft and jumped from 1,500 feet. She landed safely.

Melvin jumped first to test the wind over the field.

Then his mother climbed into a plane to make not only her first descent by 'chute but also her first flight in a small plane.

Utah Polio Tests Open Next Week

PROVO, Utah, Aug. 31 (AP)—The first experiment to prevent poliomyelitis paralysis in humans, through inoculation with gamma globulin, will begin in Provo next Tuesday.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced today that Dr. William McD. Hammon, on leave from University of Pittsburgh, will conduct the experiment.

Children in the age group of three to eight years will be used in the tests, which will be conducted actively through Sept. 8. The foundation says it hopes to try out the usefulness of gamma globulin, a blood fraction, on 5,000 of the 12,000 children in the age group in Utah County.

Foundation officials said this blood fraction, a portion of human blood containing a large number of anti-bodies, has proved successful in preventing paralysis in monkeys suffering from the crippling disease.

Gamma globulin is extracted from blood donated to the Red Cross. It is not expected to be a polio cure or preventative. The foundation hopes only to gain successful results in curbing paralysis in those who contract the disease.

Thrill Driver Dies

TEXARKANA, Tex., Aug. 31 (AP)—Jimmy Lynch, the thrill-driver who entertained millions, died today.

The 50-year-old Texarkana man died in a local hospital of cirrhosis of the liver. He had been ill for several months.

Jimmy Lynch's death-dodgers — cars painted with the skull and crossbones—had made him a great attraction at world and state fairs.

Air And Sea Assault Aids Allied Drive

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Saturday, Sept. 1 (AP) — Hard-fighting Allied troops gained up to four miles in East Korea Friday under cover of one of the heaviest warship and plane assaults of the Korean war.

Allied headquarters said today that Communist resistance to the drivew as heavy. Counter-attacks by Red battalions were repulsed.

Supporting the drive, warships off the east coast poured shells into Red assembly points, ammunition dumps, factories, rail and road arteries.

The Reds were shoved off one key peak.

The Peiping Red radio, quoting an Aug. 31 front line dispatch, said the Communists had opened counterattacks in the East Korean sector after "checking the reckless drives of the American and Rhee's troops."

Syngman Rhee is president of the South Korean republic.

Peiping claimed that more than 7,700 U. N. and South Korean troops were "put out of action" in Korea in the five-day period ended Aug. 25.

Alvancing behind heavy artillery barrages, the Allied forces struck northward at four main points along a 16-mile sector between the east coast and Yanggu. This area is from seven to 15 miles north of parallel 38.

AP photographer Robert Otey reported from the front that between one and two battalions of Korean Reds were routed from a 2,400-foot peak. Red casualties were described as heavy.

That action, northeast of Yanggu, was just to the south of positions occupied late Thursday by a new Communist division, estimated at some 8,000 men.

Java Volcano Erupts

JAKARTA, Indonesia, Aug. 31 (AP) —The Keloet volcano, which killed thousands of persons in 1919, broke loose today with a 45-minute eruption of ash, steam and stones which clouded hundreds of square miles of East Java. Hot mud sluiced down its slopes.

FBI Arrests Three More Alleged Reds

Held At Los Angeles Under $50,000 Bonds

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP) — Three more men were arrested by the FBI here today on charges of conspiracy to advocate the violent overthrow of the government.

Ten other men and two women previously were charged here with the same offense and are currently held in lieu of $50,000 bail each.

Those arrested today are Frank Carlson, 37; Frank E. Spector, 56, and Ben Dobbs, 39. Carlson was taken in custody at his home, Spector while working as a painter in an apartment house and Dobbs at a movie theater, FBI agents said.

They said Carlson and Spector are not U. S. citizens and that deportation proceedings against them are pending.

The three were taken immediately before a U. S. commissioner for arraignment.

The commissioner set their bonds at $50,000 despite their pleas that such a high amount was tantamount to a denial of bail. Carlson pointed out he is already under $5,000 bail on a deportation charge and Spector said he has furnished $20,000 bonds—$5,000 on a deportation charge and $10,000 on a charge of violating the McCarren Act.

Preliminary hearing for the three was set for Sept. 14, although an assistant U. S. attorney said their case would be presented to the Federal Grand Jury in about 10 days. They were not represented by counsel.

At Washington J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said in a statement that Carlson is chairman of the Communist Party's defense committee in Los Angeles.

Acheson Dares Russia To Sign Jap Peace Pact

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson left for the Japanese peace conference today after challenging Russia to sign the treaty if it sincerely wants peace.

Acheson said the conference opening at San Francisco Sept. 4 "will provide a test for those nations that really want peace and those that do not."

He predicted that the "vast majority" of the 51 or more nations sending delegates will sign.

The Soviet delegation, headed by Andrei Gromyko, is en route with the avowed purpose of pressing for terms favored by the Communists. Acheson's parting statement appeared aimed at the likelihood of a Soviet holdout, but did not mention Russia specifically.

The secretary and most of the American delegation traveled aboard a chartered plane. Included was Ambassador John Foster Dulles, who termed the Pacific settlement "a peace of collective security."

Dulles, who negotiated the Japanese treaty, issued a statement in which he pointed to that pact, to a mutual defense treaty which the United States signed with the Philippines yesterday, and the signing tomorrow of a mutual defense treaty with Australia and New Zealand.

"Peace is being reestablished in the Pacific," he said. "This new peace is not the old kind of peace, which failed. It is a peace of collective security."

"Stubborn Irishman" Wins Place Aboard Gromyko Car

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP) — The Chicago Sun-Times said today Andrei A. Gromyko and party passed through Chicago aboard a railroad car they were "reluctantly sharing" with a "stubborn Irishman."

The newspaper said J. F. Butler, San Francisco, a printer and pressman for a job shop, had been on an eastern vacation trip and had obtained reservations aboard the New York Central's Lake Shore Limited prior to those of the Gromyko party.

"The Butlers tried to board the (train) pulling out of New York Wednesday night," the newspaper said. "But they were stopped by policemen who said they couldn't get aboard the car on which they had their reservations."

It quoted Butler as saying the car had been reserved by the Russians traveling to the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco.

The newspaper said Butler related:

"They even started taking my baggage off. I told them, I'm no Russian—I'm Irish, and I'm going to get on that car."

The story said railroad special agents were summoned and verified the Butlers' reservations were made earlier than those of Gromyko and his party. They decided to honor the reservations.

The Butlers then had a compartment in the middle of the security-guarded car, only a few compartments from Gromyko himself.

Enemy Says Kaesong Area Bombed Again

Joy Dispatches U. N. Officers To Scene

TOKYO, Saturday, Sept. 1 (AP) — The Allies today dispatched investigators to Kaesong to check on a new Red charge that a U. S. plane made a bombing attack early this morning near quarters of the chief Red truce negotiator.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief Allied truce negotiator, took action only a few hours after the Red charge was filed together with this challenge:

"Should you refuse to come, such a choice is up to you."

The bombing charge was the latest in a mounting series which the Communists have piled one upon the other after breaking off the Kaesong talks 10 days ago.

U. N. Refutes Other Charges

Today headquarters said investigations refuted two other Red charges.

That Allied troops were involved in shootings and entry into the Kaesong neutral zone Aug. 30; that an Allied plane dropped flares in the zone Aug. 29.

Headquarters said planes did drop flares at 3:40 a. m. Aug. 29 —but at points 20 and 25 miles north of Kaesong.

The Reds' veiled suggestion that the Allies might refuse to check the new charge fitted into a propaganda pattern which they have followed since charging a previous such air attack.

Although the Allies promptly investigated and then denied a Red charge that a U. S. plane bombed the neutral Kaesong zone the night of Aug. 22, the Communists have continued to insist that a full investigation never was pursued.

Newsmen In Party

For the first time, Allied officers were accompanied by newsmen in an investigation of Red charges.

The new charge first was broadcast today over the Red radio at Peiping.

The investigating officers sent to Kaesong included Air Force Col. Andrew J. Kinney and Marine Corps Col. J. C. Murray.

After the Peiping broadcast, a Red liaison officer reported the alleged bombing incident to the Allies' Munsan truce camp by radio telephone. His report included a request that the Allies send investigators.

Resumption Of Talks Seen

Kinney and Murray are the same two liaison officers who checked a previous such bombing charge which the Reds used to break off the Kaesong truce talks Aug. 26. They denied that an Allied plane was involved.

The Peiping broadcast said that two bombs were dropped at 12:30 a. m. today and fell less than half a mile from the residence of Lt. Gen. Nam Il, chief Red negotiator, at Pingkotong near Kaesong.

The Reds gave no hint that they want to resume negotiations.

Nevertheless, an Allied spokesman declared "there is no indication that there will be a permanent breakdown" in the talks.

Capehart Target Of Truman Barb

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP) — President Truman blasted anew today at a "terrible" provision in the new price control law and said he doubted whether its author, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), understood it.

Mr. Truman expressed his views in a personal letter to Capehart, typed on pale green note paper. It was the latest in a series of select barbs the letter-writing President has tossed into the mails during his career in the White House.

It was in response to a letter from Capehart demanding to know whether Mr. Truman would guarantee the people a lower cost of living if the controls law is changed to conform to the administration's ideas.

Capehart's letter said that only a year ago Mr. Truman was saying that price controls were not necessary at all in the "foreseeable future." The senator raised the question whether Mr. Truman was not trying now to "use the Congress as a scapegoat for poor judgment."

The Capehart amendment, one of three provisions Mr. Truman wants removed from the control law, allows the seller to pass on to consumers all cost increases between the start of the Korean war and July 26, 1951.

Capehart released the Truman letter at a Senate Banking Committee hearing on changes in the law.

Commissioners Will Attend State Association Meeting

The Court House will be closed Labor Day and the Allegany County Board of Commissioners will meet next Thursday instead of Friday due to the session of the State Association of County Commissioners in Ocean City next Friday. The usual Tuesday meeting will be held.

The Allegany county board members will attend the state gathering and William H. Lemmert, president, is slated to become a member of the executive committee of the state organization.

A number of complaints on county roads were received by the board this morning. James A. Gardner asked that Main Street in Potomac Park be fixed. A request of Mrs. Dolly Oliver for repairs to the Hazen Road bridge will be referred to Bedford county, Pa., authorities as the structure is not located in Allegany county.

S. R. Flanagan asked that a road in the Homewood Addition on the Mt. Savage Road be repaired. All of the repair requests were referred to J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor.

Chapman also discussed with the board a request of the Parent-Teacher Association of Cresaptown School for work to prevent water from flowing from drainage pipes onto the site of a proposed playground.

The PTA group has notified Chapman that a plot of land near the school will be graded at the expense of the organization and the board of Education has said it will surface the area.

Chapman said if the Board of Education decides to build a wall along the section of road where the water emerges from the drain pipes the situation complained will be eliminated and the cost to the county would be kept to a minimum. The roadway could be surfaced from the present blacktopping to the wall to provide a wider thoroughfare, Chapman pointed out.

The commissioners decided to await the action taken by the school board in the matter.

Commissioners Will Attend State Association Meeting

The Court House will be closed Labor Day and the Allegany County Board of Commissioners will meet next Thursday instead of Friday due to the session of the State Association of County Commissioners in Ocean City next Friday. The usual Tuesday meeting will be held.

The Allegany county board members will attend the state gathering and William H. Lemmert, president, is slated to become a member of the executive committee of the state organization.

A number of complaints on county roads were received by the board this morning. James A. Gardner asked that Main Street in Potomac Park be fixed. A request of Mrs. Dolly Oliver for repairs to the Hazen Road bridge will be referred to Bedford county, Pa., authorities as the structure is not located in Allegany county.

S. R. Flanagan asked that a road in the Homewood Addition on the Mt. Savage Road be repaired. All of the repair requests were referred to J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor.

Chapman also discussed with the board a request of the Parent-Teacher Association of Cresaptown School for work to prevent water from flowing from drainage pipes onto the site of a proposed playground.

The PTA group has notified Chapman that a plot of land near the school will be graded at the expense of the organization and the board of Education has said it will surface the area.

Chapman said if the Board of Education decides to build a wall along the section of road where the water emerges from the drain pipes the situation complained will be eliminated and the cost to the county would be kept to a minimum. The roadway could be surfaced from the present blacktopping to the wall to provide a wider thoroughfare, Chapman pointed out.

The commissioners decided to await the action taken by the school board in the matter.

Unarmed Welshmen Defy British Army

TRAWSFYNDD, Wales, Aug. 31 (AP)— Seventy-five bare-handed Welshmen, including a clergyman and several professors, stood up against the British army yesterday.

The Welshman didn't like the army's taking over 5,000 acres of good Welsh land for marching and shooting practice. They protested by standing in groups on roads leading to the army camp and just refusing to move.

Army trucks nudged up to within three feet of the stubborn groups. No officer was tough enough to order that they be run down. Police who were called just argued and wouldn't use their clubs. The trucks withdrew.

Rotation Of Troops

The United States Army expects to have returned to Stateside duty 120,000 veterans of Korean service by the end of October. The figure is based on an estimate of 30,000 men a month for August, September, and October, plus some 30,000 men who had been returned before the rotation program was stepped up on August 1.

The Army had announced on March 13 that a rotation plan for Korean combat veterans would begin on a small scale on May 1. A similar plan was to be instituted on the same date by the Air Force. This followed an earlier statement that replacements for casualties and battle-weary soldiers were to be arriving in Korea "in quantity" by March.

"Rotation," as used by the services in World War II and today, means replacing with fresh soldiers those troops who have had long and/or arduous service overseas. Those eligible for rotation are brought back to the States, given a 30-day furlough, reassigned to duty in continental United States.

Enlisted men who have been rotated are entitled to a full year's service in the States before they can be sent overseas again. A shortage of trained officer personnel compels the reassignment abroad of some company grade infantry officers after less than a year.

In peacetime, the normal tour of duty overseas had been 36 months. After hostilities broke out in Korea, the Army put a six-month "freeze" on all men serving overseas. The freeze was extended by another six months in all overseas commands—and indefinitely in the Far East command—in January, 1951.

Under a plan announced on August 1, the Army will give credit toward rotation for each month served overseas. Combat soldiers in Korea will get quadruple credit for each month; noncombat soldiers in Korea will get double credit. Married men in the Far East and other commands whose dependents are also overseas will get credit for actual time served. Married men whose dependents are back in the States will get a month-and-a-half's credit for each month served.

The minimum required service overseas for eligibility for rotation will vary from month to month. Factors affecting the "critical score" will be availability of replacements, shipping, and the military situation. In any event, draftees now serving abroad must be brought back to the States and discharged at the end of 24 months. Congress in extending the Selective Service Act limited the term of service for draftees to two years. No men in this category who have less than six months left to serve are now being sent overseas.

The Air Force has a similar program. Non-combat personnel are rotated on the basis of length of overseas service. The normal tour of duty varies from 36 months for England, Germany, Panama, and Hawaii to 12 months for some isolated posts in Newfoundland and the Alaskan islands.

The tour of duty for married men not accompanied by dependents in many areas is from three-quarters to one-half as long as for those whose dependents have joined them overseas. Combat crews achieve eligibility to return to the States by flying a required number of missions. These missions are analyzed qualitatively and quantitatively. All rotation for combat crews depends on military requirements.

New Dollar Deficit

London hopes not, but it may turn out that at about the time Princess Elizabeth and her consort, the Duke of Edinburgh, are visiting the Trumans at Blair House in October there will also be in Washington a British economic mission seeking additional dollar aid from the United States. And this with the approach of the date for the first payment on the 1946 loan to Britain, which comes at the end of 1951.

At the time of the last "dollar crisis" in 1949, Britain sought to meet it by cutting imports from the United States and Canada by $400 milion a year, or approximately 25 per cent, and largely expanding British exports to the dollar countries. But the re-armament program has made it necessary to increase imports of raw materials from dollar countries, and next to impossible to increase British exports to them.

In June, which is said to have been the "most disastrous month in the whole history of British foreign trade," Britain's imports exceeded her exports by $422.8 million. In July the trade deficit was not quite so bad — $355.9 million — but it still was more than four times last year's monthly average deficit and more than three times the monthly average deficit of 1949. The August and September figures may show further improvement, but probably not enough to remove the need for further Marshall Plan or other aid from the United States.

The alternative, as it is likely to be presented to Washington, is release by the British government of more raw materials and manpower to export industries, at the expense of rearmament, so that Britain will have more manufactured goods to exchange for dollars in this country and Canada.

A New Boon?

Science may have come up with another boon for afflicted mankind. Zirconium. It's supposed to be good for the effects of poison ivy, a loathsome vegetation that thrives in the Eastern and Central United States. It's akin to the poison oak of the South and West.

When a victim discovers he has been in contact with poison ivy, it's too late to prevent dire results by washing with laundry soap, though washing is of course indicated. What else to do? A funny friend is sure to say, "Scratch it?" The more sympathetic will have other advice, in quantity.

Not that certain time-tested remedies are entirely worthless. Calamine lotion, epsom salts, bicarbonate of soda, potassium permanganate solution—all these are somewhat efficacious. But most victims of poison ivy feel fairly early in the struggle that a better solution should be sought for this little medical problem.

Well, maybe it has been found. Drs. G. Arnold Cronk and Dorothy E. Naumann of Syracuse University have reported a new specific for ivy poisoning. They have found that zirconium oxide, when applied in an ointment of the vanishing cream type, gives speedy relief. Tried on 47 patients with the usual symptoms, within 24 hours it stopped the itching and burning, abated the rash and dried up the blisters for 39 of them.

Eight of the 47 weren't helped, unhappily, so a sure cure for ivy poisoning has not yet been discovered. But one more weapon in the arsenal will be welcomed by the tender-skinned who would just as soon not be the butt of the comic strips.

How To Keep Well

Meningitis With A Happy Ending

In World War II I was making rounds in an army hospital ward when a young soldier entered and walked over to bed 4. He looked and acted like any one with a severe sore throat. His temperature was 103 degrees F. and he told the nurse that he had "a bad cold."

The young man did not appear too ill, so I decided to see the other sick boys before examining the new arrival. After doing this, I went over to the young man and, to my amazement, found him in a semi-stuporous condition. His neck was stiff and it was obvious that this was meningitis. A small amount of fluid was withdrawn from the spilan canal to confirm the diagnosis. We injected a large dose of sulfadiazine into a vein and by afternoon the chap was fully conscious. The medicine was continued for several days until recovery was complete.

Had this disease attacked the father of this patient in World War I there is a good possibility that death would have occurred. Prior to the discovery of the sulfonamides and antibiotics, eight out of 10 victims of meningococcal meningitis did not survive. In this condition the delicate membranous linings of the brain or spinal cord are invaded by the meningococcus. The organism enters the nose and throat, where it often produces the initial respiratory infection that is indistinguishable from ordinary sore throat.

This type of meningitis generally begins abruptly with headache, fatigue, and irritability. Infants and children frequently vomit, become prostrated, or have a convulsion. The temperature jumps to 103 degrees F. or more, the pulse quickens, and breathing becomes irregular. General muscular rigidity develops and the neck becomes stiff. When the physician tries to flex the neck of the patient with his hands, the knees draw up. The knee cannot be bent when the leg is flexed at the hip. These are signs that the membranes covering the brain or spinal cord are inflamed. As the disease progresses, delirium, stupor, and coma ensue. The organism also spreads to the blood and produces minute hemorrhages on the skin in the form of pinpoint rash. Sulfadiazine and penicillin constitute a team of remedies that brings the infection under control in less than a day.

Many healthy individuals harbor the meningococcus in the throat and in this respect act at carriers. They do not develop the disorder but can transmit it to others, especially when living in crowded quarters. It is for this reason that outbreaks are more prone to arise in the thickly populated areas, army barracks, and institutions. Most such epidemics can be traced to a single healthy carrier or a single case. Children are most susceptible and 40 per cent of the victims are youngsters 5 years of age or younger. One attack usually confers everlasting immunity.

Other germs are capable of causing meningitis. The pneumococcus and the influenza organism are frequent offenders, with the streptococcus and the staphylococcus next. The sulfonamides and antibiotics are capable of dealing with these germs so that meningitis is not as serious as it was in the past.

OLD OR NEW

N. J. writes: We hear so much about virus infections these days. Are they new diseases or just new names for old afflictions?

REPLY

The majority are old diseases for which we have found new causes.

DIET IN HYPERTENSION

W. C. writes: Will a raw vegetable and fruit diet lower high blood pressure?

REPLY

Only in those rare instances in which obesity is playing a role or the elevated pressure is being maintained because the tissues are saturated with too much sodium. Most vegetables have more sodium than fruits and the diet you mention should not be confused with the rice diet that contains rice and fruit juices as well as supplementary vitamins.

CANCER TEST

V. B. writes: Will you explain the procedure of the new test for cancer?

REPLY

In this test the secretions or scrapings from organs to be studied are sent to the laboratory for special examination. The procedure is easy so far as the patient is concerned but it requires considerable technical skill in the laboratory. A positive reaction calls for further investigation.

BACK PAIN AND ULCER

K. D. E. writes: Could stomach ulcer cause pain in the upper back?

REPLY

This would be unusual; ulcer pain usually is more noticeable a little to the right of the umbilicus. Occasionally it is felt in the back just behind this spot. Distress from heartburn sometimes is located in the area you mention and, in this respect, ulcer could be indirectly responsible.

MICHAEL V. DI SALLE on

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Office Of Price Stabilization Is An Unwanted Child; Chief Job Is To Prevent Profiteering; Every American Can Fight Inflation

(Ed. Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being by Michael V. Di Salle, director of the Office of Price Stabilization.)

WASHINGTON — Writing this column for Drew Pearson today instead of reading it, deprives me of a pleasure I enjoy each morning. For each morning I read the column to find out what his predictions are on what we are about to do—and surprisingly enough sometimes the predictions have been right. Occasionally, reading the column is not a pleasure for it steps on the toes of some of my friends. But I guess no one likes to see his friends unhappy.

Generally, however, I enjoy the column because of its hard-driving support of the stabilization program which we feel is so right and so necessary. We appreciate this support because of the attitude of some people in treating the Office of Price Stabilization like an unwanted child. Like the unwanted child, we did not ask to be born. We were not self-created. We were born out of the emergency in Korea plus the need for a strong American defense against aggression. Our work parallels the work of the other emergency mobilization agencies created by the Defense Production Act to build this defense for America.

Other agencies have the obligation of spurring production and channeling materials. Our job is the control of prices which are so susceptible to rises in times when the nation's economic resources are under pressure.

This obligation is bound to place us in conflict with those individuals who look on the nation's emergency as a time for systematically plucking its citizens. These shortsighted individuals do not seem to know or care that this process produces only phony dollars. Their own actions strike at the strength of the system which they prate about, but so poorly serve.

The dangerous thing is that these people are a minority but they become pace-setters if the nation leaves them unrestrained. It takes just a few people to destroy the normal reliance on and compliance with the laws of the land. The murderer and the thief are the exceptions in a society. Yet we build vast and expensive law enforcement systems to protect the many from the lawless few.

We must protect the business community from the few who will profiteer. The retailer works on a margin. He is in daily contact with the consumer. He certainly enjoys very little pleasure in constantly increasing his prices. But if he is to stay in business he has no alternative if his costs continue to increase. The wholesalers, the manufacturers, all face similar problems. It takes only a few increasing costs to set the upward pressures in motion, for each segment of business must maintain its competitive position.

It takes many hours of hard work by a great many people—it costs the nation a great deal to support an economic control program. But the alternative is far more costly.

From Korea to February 15, 1951, the cost of living in the United States increased eight per cent. Translated into dollars, these price rises cost the American people 16 billion dollars. The increase from February 15, 1951, to June 15, 1951, was eight-tenths of one per cent or less than 2 billion dollars.

While we were holding this price line, the index in our neighboring nation Canada—which has no direct price controls — increased 5.3 per cent during the same period. If our prices had been going up at the same rate as Canada's, it would have cost the American consumer 7 billion dollars — about $150 per family of three persons. Instead, this same family paid less than $1 to help the government run our American price control program during this same period.

More important than the dollar savings, of course, is the stability achieved and the danger of inflation averted.

In times of rising prices the manufacturing worker can take care of himself somewhat better than other average people. But he represents a small percentage of American workers in comparison to those who are hit by inflation—the white collar worker, the low income worker, the government worker, the pensioner, the man or woman who has worked for many years and has finally retired on savings, or the young wife and family of a serviceman overseas. All these people see their standard of living reduced and their hope for a secure old age shattered by prices over which they have no control. And even the factory worker will fall behind in the race between prices and wages.

The need to protect our people from inflation and the absolute need for stability to help achieve defense production give patriotic Americans all the incentive they need to support our price control program. What would it profit us if we strain our resources to build military strength and at the same time tear down the American economy? The Kremlin could ask nothing better.

So many Americans ask, "What can I do to help in these times?" So many feel hopeless because they cannot carry rifles or cannot fly planes or man tanks. But this fight against inflation is something in which every American can play a part.

The business man can practice restraint in his pricing practices. The consumer can avoid buying all except those things he really needs.

There has been what the economists call a "softening" of prices on many items at this time. But the American people need to know that the inflationary bomb has a delayed fuse. The pressures ahead are building up—rising world prices, a billion dollars a week in U. S. defense costs, less civilian production in relation to civilian spending power.

Common sense, hardheaded realism and a determination by the people to act together for the national security will see us through a difficult two years ahead.

Certainly this is a small price to preserve the freedom, the security and the abundant living standards that Americans have built for themselves through the years.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Many assumptions seem to be upset by the erratic behavior of the Communists in the attempted negotiation of a cease-fire but new assumptions are beginning to take their place.

The latest idea which seems to have taken possession of official Washington is that the lull in the cease-fire parleys is somehow related to the forthcoming maneuvers at San Francisco, where the Russians are planning to make a grandstand play for propaganda reasons.

This theory is predicated on the belief that the Communists are trying to bargain for better terms and that, if they can accomplish something in that direction, they will give the go-ahead in Korea to a cease-fire.

No Connection

But against this is the fact that the United States has served notice there will be no revision of the Japanese treaty and that the purpose of the San Francisco meeting is to arrange for all nations either to sign or fail to sign the document—there is no middle ground for negotiation.

For this reason, it would appear to be far-fetched to tie the two things together — Korean negotiations and the San Francisco Conference.

A more plausible assumption is that the Communists intend to prolong indefinitely the palaver about a cease-fire because they think the United Nations will not exert its maximum force on the ground and in the air anyway. Also the Communists have been led to believe, through the dismissal of General MacArthur, that the UN is interested primarily in "appeasement" and that, if the conferences are strung out, the UN finally will capitulate to Chinese Communist terms.

With India calling once more for admission of Red China to the UN, and with a substantial segment of the British Labor party demanding that Red China be given that seat and American rearmament be slowed down, one wonders why anybody is puzzled over the delay in the cease-fire negotiations. As long as Moscow thinks the Allies are weak and divided and that time is working for the Chinese Communist side of the controversy, there is no reason for the Reds to hurry.

The assumption in official quarters here for some time has been that the Chinese really wanted the armistice because they were being severely punished. The Communists, on the other hand, have held to the assumption that the UN is eager for the cease-fire to the point of willingness to accept after a bit of delay the 38th Parallel as the armistice line.

These assumptions are mistaken on both sides, but the only way to prove them baseless may be for the two sets of belligerents to seek by force to dispel illusions. That is why, so far a the UN is concerned, the bombing of Rashin, 17 miles from the Soviet border, by B-29's, has real significance.

Of Psychological Value

The results of the bombing now have been announced by the U. S. Air Force. The rail lines to Siberia were cut. Notwithstanding this damage, the main value of the raid was doubtless psychological—to impress both Russia and China with the fact that American air power may be stepped up and that perhaps targets even north of the border will be bombed if the Chinese-Russian air intervention is enlarged.

Whatever the basic reasons originally were for the start of negotiations for an armistice, they remain the same today, notwithstanding the charges and countercharges of truce violations. What were those reasons? Nobody here knows the Communist reasons but, if it was assumed they were beaten and in a hurry to end the fighting, the behavior of their envoys contradicts that belief.

Finally, it is reasoned by experienced observers of Far Eastern Affairs, and particularly of the tactics of the Chinese Communists in the civil war with the Nationalists, that the cease-fire talks are merely the prelude to a prolonged war of attrition. The United Nations is in for a long, long struggle that may be characterized by military offensives as well as intermittent peace parleys.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Agnes Smedley

I knew Agnes Smedley in Shanghai in the years between 1926 and 1931. I do not recall the exact date when she appeared as correspondent for the "Frankfurter Zeitung," but I do recall that she came with letters to Mme. Sun Yat-Sen from Communists in Germany and Russia.

She was an embittered woman who hated her father. In Germany, she married a Hindu. She was antipathetic to all so-called "white" people, who to her were inferior to Asiatics. Her personal circle consisted largely of Chinese, Japanese, Hindus and other Asiatics for whom she had an unusual attraction.

I knew that Agnes Smedley was a Communist because at one stage she tried to recruit me and became antagonistic to me when I acted dumb and seemed not to understand what she was talking about. She was apparently stationed in Shanghi for recruiting purposes.

Although Agnes Smedley was an American, she had no attachments to this country and said so. Her hatred for America arose from her hatred for her father, who, according to her, abused her mother. She wrote a book about that.

General Charles A. Willoughby, of General MacArthur's staff, found that Agnes Smedley was a member of the Richard Sorge espionage group, operating on behalf of Soviet Russia in China and Japan.

In 1949, he made a report to the Army on the Sorge case which received considerable publicity in the United States, having been released by the Army and then withdrawn. Of this report, the following colloquy took place at the McCarran Committee hearings:

"Senator Ferguson, Do you know whether or not that was ever recalled, or what happened to that report?

"General Willoughby. If I interpret your question correctly, Senator, the report was filed by us, meaning the headquarters in Tokyo, as a normal intelligence or internal security report of which there were many in the period. They (the Army) decided to publish, to release it because it compared most favorably with the then notorious Canadian espionage case. We made, of course, no objection . . .

"Senator Ferguson. So that it was released; is that correct?

"General Willoughby. It was released.

"Senator Ferguson. Was it ever withdrawn?

"General Willoughby. Not by us.

"Senator Ferguson. By anybody?

"General Willoughby. Actually there was what I would term an indirect repudiation based solely on Agnes Smedley's protestation at the time, including a threat of libel."

I am sure that the American Consulate in Shanghai and military intelligence in China, as early as 1929, had reports on Agnes Smedley's activities in China. Then there are the fully authenticated reports from our own intelligence and the Japanese police in the Sorge case. Yet the War Department public relations officer "as well as officials of the Secretary of War's office, then under Mr. Royall" withdrew the charges on the threat of libel. General Willoughby says:

"The result was that no action was taken on this report. Smedley never sued for libel, though her legal representative, Mr. Rogge, threatened to do that; and the case died, you might say, because of lack of further attention."

After the Smedley report was withdrawn by the War Department, the following lawyers studied the evidence:

J. Woodall Greene, member of the Maryland Bar; J. S. Carusi, member of the Connecticut Bar; Franklin E. N. Warren, member of the Oklahoma Bar and member of the New Mexico Bar and finally E. V. A. DeBecker and Rokuro Yusami, a firm of international Tokyo lawyers who are members of the Middle Temple of London and members of the Inner Temple of London.

Their conclusion was:

"Based upon our examination of the documents listed immediately heretofore, it is the opinion of the undersigned that these evidence establish proof that Richard Sorge and his associates were espionage agents for the Russian Army and that Agnes Smedley and Guenther Stein are Communists in mind, spirit, and practice, and that they were actively and knowingly connected with the Sorge spy ring in China and Japan . . ."

Now, this case is dead, as is Agnes Smedley. But the importance of the foregoing testimony lies in this question:

Who in the War Department or in any other department of government was so powerful that whenever we bumped up against a Russian spy, a Russian spy ring, an American in Russia's service, the spies were protected and the Americans who uncovered them were repudiated and attacked and even eliminated from public life?

This question must be answered for our safety as a nation.

Factors In Inflation

By MARK SULLIVAN

A widely held and tenable judgment about a complex subject is put in a brief and simply worded sentence by "The Washington Post:" "Cumulative inflation appears to be unavoidable under existing conditions unless farmers and industrialists as well as workers are willing to make sacrifice in the common cause." The same judgment is expressed by a group of members of the official Wage Stabilization Board at Washington: "If separate groups, working directly or indirectly or through pressure organizations, continue to stoke the boiler by demanding greater price increases and higher wages. . . inevitably the boiler is going to explode and the cost of living is going to skyrocket."

It should be said that so far as this official judgment suggests apprehension about any immediate and explosive development, it goes farther than the present condition justifies. What is under way so far is a sequence of developments which move toward higher cost of living and more inflation. The developments are mainly actions by groups, wage raises brought about by organized labor, increases in prices of food that serve the interest of farmers. Many of the developments that make for more inflation are official actions by government. All the developments could be arrested. Besides, there are forces in motion, including price reductions in many lines, which operate toward a lower level of prices generally and reversal of inflation. Reversal is still a possibility.

Furthered By Government

The degree to which cost of living and inflation are furthered by official actions of government is not widely recognized. Beginning this week, the public will have to pay higher prices for sending telegrams. The increases are made possible by an order of the Federal Communications Commission. Another government agency, the Interstate Commerce Commission, recently authorized an increase of freight rates. This will cause the public to pay higher prices for goods carried on railroads, which is about all the goods there are. The Interstate Commerce Commission does not increase the cost of living of its own accord, its decisions take account of raises in wages for railroad workers and of increases in the cost of fuel due to raises in wages of coal miners. Similarly, decisions of the Federal Communications Commission take account of wage raises in the communications industry, the telegraph industry and others.

The primary factors making for increased cost of living and inflation are wage raises brought about by organized labor, and artificial support of prices of farm crops, food, in the interest of farmers. To both these groups there is deference by politics. In the recent Congressional debate on the economic controls bill, the strongest single force was the "Farm Bloc" made up of members who habitually support the interest of farmers. Members of Congress are fully aware of the part the farm vote will play in the Presidential and Congressional elections next year. In the minds of leaders of both parties the campaign next year in the Mid-West and other farming sections is largely a competition for the farm vote. The Mid-West farm vote was the largest single factor in the surprise which President Truman's victory in 1948 was.

The power asserted by organized labor has grown to a degree not generally recognized. During the Congressional debate and public discussion about economic controls, labor unions and leaders have made frequent demands for wage raises, in some cases have struck to get them. Some strikes, like the present one in the copper industry, have interfered with production of materials for war.

Subject To Confirmation

The increases of wage rates which labor unions have won from employers are subject to confirmation by an agency of the Administration, the War Stabilization Board. This agency, and the Administration as a whole, has tended to defer to labor.

Early this year the board as originally set up ordered a standard ceiling over wages, in general 10 per cent above what had been the wage level a year preceding. Against this organized labor protested vigorously. The Administration deferred to the protest, among other ways by setting up a new Wage Stabilization Board. The new board has made many exceptions to the 10 per cent standard ceiling, and a recently adopted policy of the board seems to point toward a materially higher ceiling.

Yet it is doubtful whether organized labor really has great power with voters. In the Ohio Senatorial election last November, Sen. Taft was, in the whole country, the outstanding object of attack by labor leaders carrying on a political action campaign. But Taft won sensationally, and among the 84 counties he carried (out of a total of 88) were the counties containing large numbers of industrial workers.

Rotation Of Troops

The United States Army expects to have returned to Stateside duty 120,000 veterans of Korean service by the end of October. The figure is based on an estimate of 30,000 men a month for August, September, and October, plus some 30,000 men who had been returned before the rotation program was stepped up on August 1.

The Army had announced on March 13 that a rotation plan for Korean combat veterans would begin on a small scale on May 1. A similar plan was to be instituted on the same date by the Air Force. This followed an earlier statement that replacements for casualties and battle-weary soldiers were to be arriving in Korea "in quantity" by March.

"Rotation," as used by the services in World War II and today, means replacing with fresh soldiers those troops who have had long and/or arduous service overseas. Those eligible for rotation are brought back to the States, given a 30-day furlough, reassigned to duty in continental United States.

Enlisted men who have been rotated are entitled to a full year's service in the States before they can be sent overseas again. A shortage of trained officer personnel compels the reassignment abroad of some company grade infantry officers after less than a year.

In peacetime, the normal tour of duty overseas had been 36 months. After hostilities broke out in Korea, the Army put a six-month "freeze" on all men serving overseas. The freeze was extended by another six months in all overseas commands—and indefinitely in the Far East command—in January, 1951.

Under a plan announced on August 1, the Army will give credit toward rotation for each month served overseas. Combat soldiers in Korea will get quadruple credit for each month; noncombat soldiers in Korea will get double credit. Married men in the Far East and other commands whose dependents are also overseas will get credit for actual time served. Married men whose dependents are back in the States will get a month-and-a-half's credit for each month served.

The minimum required service overseas for eligibility for rotation will vary from month to month. Factors affecting the "critical score" will be availability of replacements, shipping, and the military situation. In any event, draftees now serving abroad must be brought back to the States and discharged at the end of 24 months. Congress in extending the Selective Service Act limited the term of service for draftees to two years. No men in this category who have less than six months left to serve are now being sent overseas.

The Air Force has a similar program. Non-combat personnel are rotated on the basis of length of overseas service. The normal tour of duty varies from 36 months for England, Germany, Panama, and Hawaii to 12 months for some isolated posts in Newfoundland and the Alaskan islands.

The tour of duty for married men not accompanied by dependents in many areas is from three-quarters to one-half as long as for those whose dependents have joined them overseas. Combat crews achieve eligibility to return to the States by flying a required number of missions. These missions are analyzed qualitatively and quantitatively. All rotation for combat crews depends on military requirements.

New Dollar Deficit

London hopes not, but it may turn out that at about the time Princess Elizabeth and her consort, the Duke of Edinburgh, are visiting the Trumans at Blair House in October there will also be in Washington a British economic mission seeking additional dollar aid from the United States. And this with the approach of the date for the first payment on the 1946 loan to Britain, which comes at the end of 1951.

At the time of the last "dollar crisis" in 1949, Britain sought to meet it by cutting imports from the United States and Canada by $400 milion a year, or approximately 25 per cent, and largely expanding British exports to the dollar countries. But the re-armament program has made it necessary to increase imports of raw materials from dollar countries, and next to impossible to increase British exports to them.

In June, which is said to have been the "most disastrous month in the whole history of British foreign trade," Britain's imports exceeded her exports by $422.8 million. In July the trade deficit was not quite so bad — $355.9 million — but it still was more than four times last year's monthly average deficit and more than three times the monthly average deficit of 1949. The August and September figures may show further improvement, but probably not enough to remove the need for further Marshall Plan or other aid from the United States.

The alternative, as it is likely to be presented to Washington, is release by the British government of more raw materials and manpower to export industries, at the expense of rearmament, so that Britain will have more manufactured goods to exchange for dollars in this country and Canada.

A New Boon?

Science may have come up with another boon for afflicted mankind. Zirconium. It's supposed to be good for the effects of poison ivy, a loathsome vegetation that thrives in the Eastern and Central United States. It's akin to the poison oak of the South and West.

When a victim discovers he has been in contact with poison ivy, it's too late to prevent dire results by washing with laundry soap, though washing is of course indicated. What else to do? A funny friend is sure to say, "Scratch it?" The more sympathetic will have other advice, in quantity.

Not that certain time-tested remedies are entirely worthless. Calamine lotion, epsom salts, bicarbonate of soda, potassium permanganate solution—all these are somewhat efficacious. But most victims of poison ivy feel fairly early in the struggle that a better solution should be sought for this little medical problem.

Well, maybe it has been found. Drs. G. Arnold Cronk and Dorothy E. Naumann of Syracuse University have reported a new specific for ivy poisoning. They have found that zirconium oxide, when applied in an ointment of the vanishing cream type, gives speedy relief. Tried on 47 patients with the usual symptoms, within 24 hours it stopped the itching and burning, abated the rash and dried up the blisters for 39 of them.

Eight of the 47 weren't helped, unhappily, so a sure cure for ivy poisoning has not yet been discovered. But one more weapon in the arsenal will be welcomed by the tender-skinned who would just as soon not be the butt of the comic strips.

How To Keep Well

Meningitis With A Happy Ending

In World War II I was making rounds in an army hospital ward when a young soldier entered and walked over to bed 4. He looked and acted like any one with a severe sore throat. His temperature was 103 degrees F. and he told the nurse that he had "a bad cold."

The young man did not appear too ill, so I decided to see the other sick boys before examining the new arrival. After doing this, I went over to the young man and, to my amazement, found him in a semi-stuporous condition. His neck was stiff and it was obvious that this was meningitis. A small amount of fluid was withdrawn from the spilan canal to confirm the diagnosis. We injected a large dose of sulfadiazine into a vein and by afternoon the chap was fully conscious. The medicine was continued for several days until recovery was complete.

Had this disease attacked the father of this patient in World War I there is a good possibility that death would have occurred. Prior to the discovery of the sulfonamides and antibiotics, eight out of 10 victims of meningococcal meningitis did not survive. In this condition the delicate membranous linings of the brain or spinal cord are invaded by the meningococcus. The organism enters the nose and throat, where it often produces the initial respiratory infection that is indistinguishable from ordinary sore throat.

This type of meningitis generally begins abruptly with headache, fatigue, and irritability. Infants and children frequently vomit, become prostrated, or have a convulsion. The temperature jumps to 103 degrees F. or more, the pulse quickens, and breathing becomes irregular. General muscular rigidity develops and the neck becomes stiff. When the physician tries to flex the neck of the patient with his hands, the knees draw up. The knee cannot be bent when the leg is flexed at the hip. These are signs that the membranes covering the brain or spinal cord are inflamed. As the disease progresses, delirium, stupor, and coma ensue. The organism also spreads to the blood and produces minute hemorrhages on the skin in the form of pinpoint rash. Sulfadiazine and penicillin constitute a team of remedies that brings the infection under control in less than a day.

Many healthy individuals harbor the meningococcus in the throat and in this respect act at carriers. They do not develop the disorder but can transmit it to others, especially when living in crowded quarters. It is for this reason that outbreaks are more prone to arise in the thickly populated areas, army barracks, and institutions. Most such epidemics can be traced to a single healthy carrier or a single case. Children are most susceptible and 40 per cent of the victims are youngsters 5 years of age or younger. One attack usually confers everlasting immunity.

Other germs are capable of causing meningitis. The pneumococcus and the influenza organism are frequent offenders, with the streptococcus and the staphylococcus next. The sulfonamides and antibiotics are capable of dealing with these germs so that meningitis is not as serious as it was in the past.

OLD OR NEW

N. J. writes: We hear so much about virus infections these days. Are they new diseases or just new names for old afflictions?

REPLY

The majority are old diseases for which we have found new causes.

DIET IN HYPERTENSION

W. C. writes: Will a raw vegetable and fruit diet lower high blood pressure?

REPLY

Only in those rare instances in which obesity is playing a role or the elevated pressure is being maintained because the tissues are saturated with too much sodium. Most vegetables have more sodium than fruits and the diet you mention should not be confused with the rice diet that contains rice and fruit juices as well as supplementary vitamins.

CANCER TEST

V. B. writes: Will you explain the procedure of the new test for cancer?

REPLY

In this test the secretions or scrapings from organs to be studied are sent to the laboratory for special examination. The procedure is easy so far as the patient is concerned but it requires considerable technical skill in the laboratory. A positive reaction calls for further investigation.

BACK PAIN AND ULCER

K. D. E. writes: Could stomach ulcer cause pain in the upper back?

REPLY

This would be unusual; ulcer pain usually is more noticeable a little to the right of the umbilicus. Occasionally it is felt in the back just behind this spot. Distress from heartburn sometimes is located in the area you mention and, in this respect, ulcer could be indirectly responsible.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Office Of Price Stabilization Is An Unwanted Child; Chief Job Is To Prevent Profiteering; Every American Can Fight Inflation

(Ed. Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being by Michael V. DI Salle, director of the Office of Price Stabilization.)

WASHINGTON — Writing this column for Drew Pearson today instead of reading it, deprives me of a pleasure I enjoy each morning. For each morning I read the column to find out what his predictions are on what we are about to do—and surprisingly enough sometimes the predictions have been right. Occasionally, reading the column is not a pleasure for it steps on the toes of some of my friends. But I guess no one likes to see his friends unhappy.

Generally, however, I enjoy the column because of its hard-driving support of the stabilization program which we feel is so right and so necessary. We appreciate this support because of the attitude of some people in treating the Office of Price Stabilization like an unwanted child. Like the unwanted child, we did not ask to be born. We were not self-created. We were born out of the emergency in Korea plus the need for a strong American defense against aggression. Our work parallels the work of the other emergency mobilization agencies created by the Defense Production Act to build this defense for America.

Other agencies have the obligation of spurring production and channeling materials. Our job is the control of prices which are so susceptible to rises in times when the nation's economic resources are under pressure.

This obligation is bound to place us in conflict with those individuals who look on the nation's emergency as a time for systematically plucking its citizens. These shortsighted individuals do not seem to know or care that this process produces only phony dollars. Their own actions strike at the strength of the system which they prate about, but so poorly serve.

The dangerous thing is that these people are a minority but they become pace-setters if the nation leaves them unrestrained. It takes just a few people to destroy the normal reliance on and compliance with the laws of the land. The murderer and the thief are the exceptions in a society. Yet we build vast and expensive law enforcement systems to protect the many from the lawless few.

We must protect the business community from the few who will profiteer. The retailer works on a margin. He is in daily contact with the consumer. He certainly enjoys very little pleasure in constantly increasing his prices. But if he is to stay in business he has no alternative if his costs continue to increase. The wholesalers, the manufacturers, all face similar problems. It takes only a few increasing costs to set the upward pressures in motion, for each segment of business must maintain its competitive position.

It takes many hours of hard work by a great many people—it costs the nation a great deal to support an economic control program. But the alternative is far more costly.

From Korea to February 15, 1951, the cost of living in the United States increased eight per cent. Translated into dollars, these price rises cost the American people 16 billion dollars. The increase from February 15, 1951, to June 15, 1951, was eight-tenths of one per cent or less than 2 billion dollars.

While we were holding this price line, the index in our neighboring nation Canada—which has no direct price controls — increased 5.3 per cent during the same period. If our prices had been going up at the same rate as Canada's, it would have cost the American consumer 7 billion dollars — about $150 per family of three persons. Instead, this same family paid less than $1 to help the government run our American price control program during this same period.

More important than the dollar savings, of course, is the stability achieved and the danger of inflation averted.

In times of rising prices the manufacturing worker can take care of himself somewhat better than other average people. But he represents a small percentage of American workers in comparison to those who are hit by inflation—the white collar worker, the low income worker, the government worker, the pensioner, the man or woman who has worked for many years and has finally retired on savings, or the young wife and family of a serviceman overseas. All these people see their standard of living reduced and their hope for a secure old age shattered by prices over which they have no control. And even the factory worker will fall behind in the race between prices and wages.

The need to protect our people from inflation and the absolute need for stability to help achieve defense production give patriotic Americans all the incentive they need to support our price control program. What would it profit us if we strain our resources to build military strength and at the same time tear down the American economy? The Kremlin could ask nothing better.

So many Americans ask, "What can I do to help in these times?" So many feel hopeless because they cannot carry rifles or cannot fly planes or man tanks. But this fight against inflation is something in which every American can play a part.

The business man can practice restraint in his pricing practices. The consumer can avoid buying all except those things he really needs.

There has been what the economists call a "softening" of prices on many items at this time. But the American people need to know that the inflationary bomb has a delayed fuse. The pressures ahead are building up—rising world prices, a billion dollars a week in U. S. defense costs, less civilian production in relation to civilian spending power.

Common sense, hardheaded realism and a determination by the people to act together for the national security will see us through a difficult two years ahead.

Certainly this is a small price to preserve the freedom, the security and the abundant living standards that Americans have built for themselves through the years.

Today In Washington

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON -- Many assumptions seem to be upset by the erratic behavior of the Communists in the attempted negotiation of a cease-fire but new assumptions are beginning to take their place.

The latest idea which seems to have taken possession of official Washington is that the lull in the cease-fire parleys is somehow related to the forthcoming maneuvers at San Francisco, where the Russians are planning to make a grandstand play for propaganda reasons.

This theory is predicated on the belief that the Communists are trying to bargain for better terms and that, if they can accomplish something in that direction, they will give the go-ahead in Korea to a cease-fire.

No Connection

But against this is the fact that the United States has served notice there will be no revision of the Japanese treaty and that the purpose of the San Francisco meeting is to arrange for all nations either to sign or fail to sign the document—there is no middle ground for negotiation.

For this reason, it would appear to be far-fetched to tie the two things together — Korean negotiations and the San Francisco Conference.

A more plausible assumption is that the Communists intend to prolong indefinitely the palaver about a cease-fire because they think the United Nations will not exert its maximum force on the ground and in the air anyway. Also the Communists have been led to believe, through the dismissal of General MacArthur, that the UN is interested primarily in "appeasement" and that, if the conferences are strung out, the UN finally will capitulate to Chinese Communist terms.

With India calling once more for admission of Red China to the UN, and with a substantial segment of the British Labor party demanding that Red China be given that seat and American rearmament be slowed down, one wonders why anybody is puzzled over the delay in the cease-fire negotiations. As long as Moscow thinks the Allies are weak and divided and that time is working for the Chinese Communist side of the controversy, there is no reason for the Reds to hurry.

The assumption in official quarters here for some time has been that the Chinese really wanted the armistice because they were being severely punished. The Communists, on the other hand, have held to the assumption that the UN is eager for the cease-fire to the point of willingness to accept after a bit of delay the 38th Parallel as the armistice line.

These assumptions are mistaken on both sides, but the only way to prove them baseless may be for the two sets of belligerents to seek by force to dispel illusions. That is why, so far a the UN is concerned, the bombing of Rashin, 17 miles from the Soviet border, by B-29's, has real significance.

Of Psychological Value

The results of the bombing now have been announced by the U. S. Air Force. The rail lines to Siberia were cut. Notwithstanding this damage, the main value of the raid was doubtless psychological—to impress both Russia and China with the fact that American air power may be stepped up and that perhaps targets even north of the border will be bombed if the Chinese-Russian air intervention is enlarged.

Whatever the basic reasons originally were for the start of negotiations for an armistice, they remain the same today, notwithstanding the charges and countercharges of truce violations. What were those reasons? Nobody here knows the Communist reasons but, if it was assumed they were beaten and in a hurry to end the fighting, the behavior of their envoys contradicts that belief.

Finally, it is reasoned by experienced observers of Far Eastern Affairs, and particularly of the tactics of the Chinese Communists in the civil war with the Nationalists, that the cease-fire talks are merely the prelude to a prolonged war of attrition. The United Nations is in for a long, long struggle that may be characterized by military offensives as well as intermittent peace parleys.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Agnes Smedley

I knew Agnes Smedley in Shanghai in the years between 1926 and 1931. I do not recall the exact date when she appeared as correspondent for the "Frankfurter Zeitung," but I do recall that she came with letters to Mme. Sun Yat-Sen from Communists in Germany and Russia.

She was an embittered woman who hated her father. In Germany, she married a Hindu. She was antipathetic to all so-called "white" people, who to her were inferior to Asiatics. Her personal circle consisted largely of Chinese, Japanese, Hindus and other Asiatics for whom she had an unusual attraction.

I knew that Agnes Smedley was a Communist because at one stage she tried to recruit me and became antagonistic to me when I acted dumb and seemed not to understand what she was talking about. She was apparently stationed in Shanghi for recruiting purposes.

Although Agnes Smedley was an American, she had no attachments to this country and said so. Her hatred for America arose from her hatred for her father, who, according to her, abused her mother. She wrote a book about that.

General Charles A. Willoughby, of General MacArthur's staff, found that Agnes Smedley was a member of the Richard Sorge espionage group, operating on behalf of Soviet Russia in China and Japan.

In 1949, he made a report to the Army on the Sorge case which received considerable publicity in the United States, having been released by the Army and then withdrawn. Of this report, the following colloquy took place at the McCarran Committee hearings:

"Senator Ferguson, Do you know whether or not that was ever recalled, or what happened to that report?

"General Willoughby. If I interpret your question correctly, Senator, the report was filed by us, meaning the headquarters in Tokyo, as a normal intelligence or internal security report of which there were many in the period. They (the Army) decided to publish, to release it because it compared most favorably with the then notorious Canadian espionage case. We made, of course, no objection . . .

"Senator Ferguson. So that it was released; is that correct?

"General Willoughby. It was released.

"Senator Ferguson. Was it ever withdrawn?

"General Willoughby. Not by us.

"Senator Ferguson. By anybody?

"General Willoughby. Actually there was what I would term an indirect repudiation based solely on Agnes Smedley's protestation at the time, including a threat of libel."

I am sure that the American Consulate in Shanghai and military intelligence in China, as early as 1929, had reports on Agnes Smedley's activities in China. Then there are the fully authenticated reports from our own intelligence and the Japanese police in the Sorge case. Yet the War Department public relations officer "as well as officials of the Secretary of War's office, then under Mr. Royall" withdrew the charges on the threat of libel. General Willoughby says:

"The result was that no action was taken on this report. Smedley never sued for libel, though her legal representative, Mr. Rogge, threatened to do that; and the case died, you might say, because of lack of further attention."

After the Smedley report was withdrawn by the War Department, the following lawyers studied the evidence:

J. Woodall Greene, member of the Maryland Bar; J. S. Carusi, member of the Connecticut Bar; Franklin E. N. Warren, member of the Oklahoma Bar and member of the New Mexico Bar and finally E. V. A. DeBecker and Rokuro Yusami, a firm of international Tokyo lawyers who are members of the Middle Temple of London and members of the Inner Temple of London.

Their conclusion was:

"Based upon our examination of the documents listed immediately heretofore, it is the opinion of the undersigned that these evidence establish proof that Richard Sorge and his associates were espionage agents for the Russian Army and that Agnes Smedley and Guenther Stein are Communists in mind, spirit, and practice, and that they were actively and knowingly connected with the Sorge spy ring in China and Japan . . ."

Now, this case is dead, as is Agnes Smedley. But the importance of the foregoing testimony lies in this question:

Who in the War Department or in any other department of government was so powerful that whenever we bumped up against a Russian spy, a Russian spy ring, an American in Russia's service, the spies were protected and the Americans who uncovered them were repudiated and attacked and even eliminated from public life?

This question must be answered for our safety as a nation.

Factors In Inflation

By MARK SULLIVAN

A widely held and tenable judgment about a complex subject is put in a brief and simply worded sentence by "The Washington Post:" "Cumulative inflation appears to be unavoidable under existing conditions unless farmers and industrialists as well as workers are willing to make sacrifice in the common cause." The same judgment is expressed by a group of members of the official Wage Stabilization Board at Washington: "If separate groups, working directly or indirectly or through pressure organizations, continue to stoke the boiler by demanding greater price increases and higher wages. . . inevitably the boiler is going to explode and the cost of living is going to skyrocket."

It should be said that so far as this official judgment suggests apprehension about any immediate and explosive development, it goes farther than the present condition justifies. What is under way so far is a sequence of developments which move toward higher cost of living and more inflation. The developments are mainly actions by groups, wage raises brought about by organized labor, increases in prices of food that serve the interest of farmers. Many of the developments that make for more inflation are official actions by government. All the developments could be arrested. Besides, there are forces in motion, including price reductions in many lines, which operate toward a lower level of prices generally and reversal of inflation. Reversal is still a possibility.

Furthered By Government

The degree to which cost of living and inflation are furthered by official actions of government is not widely recognized. Beginning this week, the public will have to pay higher prices for sending telegrams. The increases are made possible by an order of the Federal Communications Commission. Another government agency, the Interstate Commerce Commission, recently authorized an increase of freight rates. This will cause the public to pay higher prices for goods carried on railroads, which is about all the goods there are. The Interstate Commerce Commission does not increase the cost of living of its own accord, its decisions take account of raises in wages for railroad workers and of increases in the cost of fuel due to raises in wages of coal miners. Similarly, decisions of the Federal Communications Commission take account of wage raises in the communications industry, the telegraph industry and others.

The primary factors making for increased cost of living and inflation are wage raises brought about by organized labor, and artificial support of prices of farm crops, food, in the interest of farmers. To both these groups there is deference by politics. In the recent Congressional debate on the economic controls bill, the strongest single force was the "Farm Bloc" made up of members who habitually support the interest of farmers. Members of Congress are fully aware of the part the farm vote will play in the Presidential and Congressional elections next year. In the minds of leaders of both parties the campaign next year in the Mid-West and other farming sections is largely a competition for the farm vote. The Mid-West farm vote was the largest single factor in the surprise which President Truman's victory in 1948 was.

The power asserted by organized labor has grown to a degree not generally recognized. During the Congressional debate and public discussion about economic controls, labor unions and leaders have made frequent demands for wage raises, in some cases have struck to get them. Some strikes, like the present one in the copper industry, have interfered with production of materials for war.

Subject To Confirmation

The increases of wage rates which labor unions have won from employers are subject to confirmation by an agency of the Administration, the War Stabilization Board. This agency, and the Administration as a whole, has tended to defer to labor.

Early this year the board as originally set up ordered a standard ceiling over wages, in general 10 per cent above what had been the wage level a year preceding. Against this organized labor protested vigorously. The Administration deferred to the protest, among other ways by setting up a new Wage Stabilization Board. The new board has made many exceptions to the 10 per cent standard ceiling, and a recently adopted policy of the board seems to point toward a materially higher ceiling.

Yet it is doubtful whether organized labor really has great power with voters. In the Ohio Senatorial election last November, Sen. Taft was, in the whole country, the outstanding object of attack by labor leaders carrying on a political action campaign. But Taft won sensationally, and among the 84 counties he carried (out of a total of 88) were the counties containing large numbers of industrial workers.

Defeated Japan's Economy Soars

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—Defeated Japan will enter the San Francisco peace conference next Tuesday in better economic condition than most of the Asian neighbors she fought in World War II.

This was disclosed in a survey of the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East which was published by the United Nations tonight.

The commission warned, however, that Japan eventually will face serious difficulties because of the stoppage of trade with Communist China and her dependence on the United States for scarce raw materials.

In some fields, the survey indicated Japan already has climbed above the prewar level to take the lead again as the dominant industrial and commercial nation of the Far East.

The Japanese also are among the best fed peoples of Asia, the report showed. With the food supply estimated at 2,100 calories a person daily, the Japanese now are near the 1934-38 level and are far ahead of such countries as India (1,702 calories) and Indochina (1,565 calories).

Harriman Still Hopes For Iran Oil Accord

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Ambassador W. Averell Harriman said today he hoped that after a "cooling off period" the Iranian government will come forward with proposals which will bring about a settlement of the oil dispute with Britain.

"The next move is up to the Iranian government," Harriman told reporters a few hours after his return from Iran where he sought to promote a settlement as President Truman's special envoy.

"I hope a period of cooling off and consideration may lead to resumptions of negotiations and an agreement," Harriman said. "Both sides can resume just where they left off."

Plane To Search Sea For Missing Youths

PANAMA, Panama, Aug. 31 (AP)—A U. S. naval patrol bomber is expected to take off tomorrow in search for three American boys missing a week aboard their ketch in the Caribbean.

The three missing are Charles and Louis Stratton, Wilmette, Ill., and Murray Wight, 20, Carmel, Calif.

Naval authorities here said that assuming the information on the Drake's departure from Providence is correct, the small vessel is still overdue at Cristobal, C. Z., for which she was heading.

British Rearmament Program Is Lagging

LONDON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Britain's rearmament program is bogging down behind schedule, a parliamentary investigating committee reported today.

Planes and vehicles production is lagging because of a shortage of manpower. Lack of men on the railways is slowing the delivery of scarce raw materials and the distribution of components made under sub-contracts.

Four Crime Probe Witnesses Indicted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted four men on contempt of Congress charges for refusing to talk before the Senate Crime Committee.

Two of them were linked by the committee with the late Al Capone's Chicago mob. They are Jacob (Greasy Thumb) Guzik and Rocco Fischetti.

The others are William G. O'Brien and George L. Bowers, both of Miami, Fla., where the committee encountered particular difficulty in gleaning information.

Explosion Injures Five

EDGEWOOD, Md., Aug. 31 (AP)—An illuminating shell exploded in the assembly process at the Army's Edgewood Chemical Center today, sending five civilian workers to the hospital. Two were seriously injured.

A chemical center spokesman explained that the workers in the ordnance assembly plant had filled the shell of the parachute type flare with chemicals and had rolled it into a gauge to see that it conformed to size specifications, the final test before it was to go into a carton for storage or shipment.

10-Word Telegram Ends 100-Year Run

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP) —The historic 10-word telegram — nine words plus "love"—bows from the American scene tomorrow after a run of 100 years.

New rates approved by the Federal Communications Commission for Western Union, to meet the cost of recent wage increases, change the minimum to 15 words for a telegram.

The rate for a 15-word full rate telegram will be less than before—$1.60 from New York to San Francisco, for instance, against $1.95 formerly. But if you only want 10 words, you still have to pay the $1.60 minimum, while under the old rate you could send 10 words for $1.45.

Truman OKs Funds For Federal Agencies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—President Truman today signed the $6,162,825,175 independent offices appropriation bill.

Its total is $675,077,290 less than the President had requested for the score of federal agencies financed by the bill for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

Largest allotments are $3,964,000,000 for the Veterans' Administration, $1,139,932,750 for the Atomic Energy Commission and $238,389,600 for the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Lost Anglers Found In Canadian Wilds

WINNEPEG, Man., Aug. 31 (AP) —Two fishermen from Wisconsin, lost nearly a month in the trackless bogs of North Saskatchewan, were reported safe and unharmed today beside their disabled airplane.

They disappeared Aug. 2 when they flew out of Lac La Ronge, Sask., in search of good fishing around Stony Rapids, 300 miles north.

The men are Dr. John Tasche, Sheyboygan, Wis., sportsman pilot, and Miles Eikenburger, Plymouth, Wis.

Truman Fires D. A. For Alaska

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A U. S. district attorney for Alaska who came to Washington for a conference last May has been removed from office because, the White House said today, he never went back to his job.

It said the attorney, Frank C. Bingham, simply disappeared after the conference was over and was later found to have set himself up in private law practice at Missoula, Mont.

Bingham was among a group of district attorneys who came here for a Justice Department get-together last May. While here, they were received by Mr. Truman who told them:

"I know that you are going to have a constructive—and have had a constructive—meeting, and that when you go back you will be feeling more like doing your job than you did when you came here."

Irving Pelmeter, assistant White House press secretary, told reporters that Bingham didn't go back and "was never heard from again" until "the Justice Department did some checking and found he had gone to Missoula and set up a private law practice."

Report Links Police, Gambling In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Aug. 31 (AP) —"Probably true," was the comment of the head of the state crime committee today when he considered a Senate crime report that linked police and gambling in Baltimore.

The Senate Crime Investigating Committee's final report included a contention that the "thriving" gambling situation in Baltimore "could not have existed without police knowledge and permission."

And State Sen. Omar D. Crothers, Jr., who heads the state Legislative Council's crime committee, agreed with that contention.

Crothers added that his committee "very definitely" will question officials of the Baltimore City Police Department on that point in a hearing next week.

WINNEPEG, Man., Aug. 31 (AP) — Two fishermen from Wisconsin, lost nearly a month in the trackless bogs of North Saskatchewan, were reported safe and unharmed today beside their disabled airplane.

They disappeared Aug. 2 when they flew out of Lac La Ronge, Sask., in search of good fishing around Stony Rapids, 300 miles north.

The men are Dr. John Tasche, Sheyboygan, Wis., sportsman pilot, and Miles Eikenburger, Plymouth, Wis.

Truman Fires D. A. For Alaska

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A U. S. district attorney for Alaska who came to Washington for a conference last May has been removed from office because, the White House said today, he never went back to his job.

It said the attorney, Frank C. Bingham, simply disappeared after the conference was over and was later found to have set himself up in private law practice at Missoula, Mont.

Bingham was among a group of district attorneys who came here for a Justice Department get-together last May. While here, they were received by Mr. Truman who told them:

"I know that you are going to have a constructive—and have had a constructive—meeting, and that when you go back you will be feeling more like doing your job than you did when you came here."

Irving Pelmeter, assistant White House press secretary, told reporters that Bingham didn't go back and "was never heard from again" until "the Justice Department did some checking and found he had gone to Missoula and set up a private law practice."

Report Links Police, Gambling In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Aug. 31 (AP) — "Probably true," was the comment of the head of the state crime committee today when he considered a Senate crime report that linked police and gambling in Baltimore.

The Senate Crime Investigating Committee's final report included a contention that the "thriving" gambling situation in Baltimore "could not have existed without police knowledge and permission."

And State Sen. Omar D. Crothers, Jr., who heads the state Legislative Council's crime committee, agreed with that contention.

Crothers added that his committee "very definitely" will question officials of the Baltimore City Police Department on that point in a hearing next week.

He has been hammering out their rhythm for six years and composing.

Patty announced her engagement at a party given by friends in Paris. The sisters go back to New York soon to begin their television show.

W. Md. Softball Tourney To Be Held At Penn Avenue

Invitational Series Is Set Sept. 11 To 14

Area League Champs To Vie For Honors In Rec Program

The first annual Western Maryland Invitational Softball Tournament will be held Sept. 11 through 14 at Penn Avenue field under the sponsorship of the City Rec Department, Edmund F. Hoey, director announced yesterday.

League champions from four area circuits will be invited to enter the tournament which is being sponsored for the purpose of raising funds for a new youth baseball league for 15 and 16 year old boys, Hoey said.

Invitations have been extended to the Eagles and Elks of the Rocking Chair League, Corriganville and LaVale of the County League, Hercules Powder Co. and C&P Telephone Co., of the Industrial League and the Amvets and Cunninghams of the City Recreation League.

Seeded teams will be the league champions of each loop—Eagles, Corriganville, Hercules and Amvets. These teams will draw for positions in the tournament and then draw opponents in two brackets, Hoey decared.

Games will be played at Penn Avenue field beginning at 6:15 p. m. with the nightcap of the double bill set for 7:45 under the lights.

The quarter finals will be held Sept. 11 and 12 and the semi-finals Sept. 14. The finals will get underway at 6:15 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 15.

All proceeds of the tournament will go toward a four-team uniformed baseball league for 15 and 16 year old youths which will be known as the "Sportsman's League."

Trophies will be awarded to the championship team, individual members of the winning squad, and to the outstanding player of the tourney. The championship trophy will be a rotating prize which must be captured three times in a row for permanent possession, Hoey explained.

Plans currently call for the invited teams to hold practice sessions under the lights at the South End field Sept. 6-9.

A meeting to further plans for the tournament will be held at the Rec Department office in the City Hall, Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 8 p. m. Teams accepting invitations are urged to notify the City Rec Department immediately, phone 5993.

Speedboats Tune Up For Cup Race

Week-end Regatta On Detroit River

DETROIT, Aug. 31 (INS)—Powerboaters from across the nation readied their sleek hydroplanes today for a crack at two major trophies during the Labor Day week-end regatta on the Detroit River.

On the block will be the Henry Ford memorial trophy, which goes tomorrow, and one of the big three powerboating awards — The Silver Cup—on Labor Day. At least six boats are ready to go for the Ford trophy.

Chuck Thompson, driving the perennial Detroit entry Miss Pepsi, has given the opposition a fabulous figure to shoot at—175 miles an hour. Thompson claims to have revved Miss Pepsi up to that speed during an unofficial trial run over a measured mile, and if true, the speed eclipses the world record of 160 miles an hour held by Stan Sayres' Seattle boat—Slo-Mo-Shun IV.

All Star Game Set For Frostburg

Arrangements have been completed for a best of three series between the Frostburg Little League All Star team and the All Stars of the Pen-Mar Little League.

The first game will be played at State Teacher's Athletic Field on Wednesday evening, Septembr 5th.

The Pen-Mar boys handed a fast Waynesburg, Pa. team a terrific trouncing at Frostburg last Wednesday evening before a large crowd. A public address system will be on hand to broadcast the details of the game, which will begin at 5:30 p. m., Walter E. Mackay, secretary of the Frostburg League announces.

Cunningham's Cop Series Opener

Cunningham's captured the series opener in the semi-finals playoff with Trozzo's in the Men's Recreation League yesterday by trouncing the latter 14-3 at Penn Avenue field.

Harris held the losers to five hits while his mates pounded out 12 against Wolz and Klavuhn. Don Buser paced the victors' attack with three hits including a homerun. Ronnie Cage also clouted a circuit blast for the winners. Martin's triple was the only extra base blow for Trozzo's. The score:

CUNNINGHAM'S	250 403 0—14	12	3
TROZZO'S	000 003 0— 3	5	3

Harris and Miller, Wolz, Klavuhn (4) and Hill.

Exhibition Game

The East Side Maids of the Queen's League, girls' softball circuit, will meet the Altoona Ramblers, defending champions of the Altoona, Pa., Girls League today at 8 p. m. at East Side field.

Swim In Thames Makes Filly Late For English Race

WINDSOR, England, Aug. 31 (AP)—A two-year-old filly named Forty-Nine was supposed to run in the Riverside Stakes at Windsor race course today.

An attendant was walking her along the Thames River en route to the track.

She broke loose, dived off the five foot bank and swam briskly across the river.

The attendant grabbed a rowboat and gave chase.

A veterinary surgeon followed the attendant.

Forty-Nine quietly surrendered on the other side of the river. The vet said she was okay and could run.

But to get back to the track the attendant had to detour a mile through Windsor to find a bridge.

Forty-Nine got back too late for the race.

Elks Blast Moose, 9-1, Win Series

Losers Lodge Protest In 4th

The Elks softball tossers landed on slow-balling Russ Minnicks yesterday in the final inning to score six runs and clinch a 9-1 victory over the Moose ten to capture the semi-final Rocking Chair League playoff series at Stitcher field.

The victors, blanked Thursday by Minnicks, trailed 1-0 after three innings yesterday before breaking the ice with three runs in the fourth frame during which the Moose team lodged an official protest with the league against a decision by the umpires.

With the Elks trailing by one run and runners on second and third, a balk was called against Minnicks and the runner on third allowed to score to tie the count. The Moose team contended the league rules stipulate a runner had to be batted in from third and the balk didn't count.

Showing a complete reversal of form from Thursday the Elks swatsmen batted out 16 hits to advance to the finals with the Eagles in the RC loop.

Four singles featured the Elks' attack in the fourth and in the big seventh inning which broke the game wide open two homeruns by Clifton Van Roby and Jim Wilkinson, each with two aboard, drove home the clinching tallies.

Carr led the losers at the plate with a triple while Van Roby had two singles in addition to his circuit clout and Orndorff had four for four.

Snappy fielding by the Elks also featured the contest. A fast double play in the second broke up a Moose rally and in the fifth three Moose singles went for naught when Minnicks was thrown out at the plate. The score:

ELKS	000 300 6—9	16	0
MOOSE	010 000 0—1	8	2

Underdonk and Garlitz. R. Minnicks and Wade.

Giants To Meet Dodgers Today In Crucial Test

Two-Game Series May Decide Flag

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—Leo Durocher pushes all his blue chips into the pot tomorrow and Sunday against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Leo is hoping his Giants will come up with four aces two days running and sweep the two-game set from the league-leaders.

If they don't, the New Yorkers are done. Seven games behind the Brooks with only 25 to go, the Giants must take the two to stay in the running. Even a sweep will leave them five lengths behind going into the Labor Day doubleheaders.

Tomorrow at the Polo Grounds it will be Sal Maglie (17-5), the curve-balling ace of the Giants, against the fast-balling Ralph Branca (12-5). On Sunday, Jim Hearn (13-7) of the Giants and strapping Don Newcombe (17-7) of the Dodgers will match their speed in the payoff game.

Some 35,000 customers are expected tomorrow with a sell-out crowd of around 50,000 for Sunday. The two bumper turnouts will push the Giants over the million mark in home attendance. The Giants have drawn 927,857 to date.

Just 17 days ago, the Giants, apparently going nowhere, and trailing Brooklyn by 12½ games, whipped the Dodgers in the Polo Grounds, 4-2. The next day they did it again, 3-1 behind Hearn and then made it three in a row by 2-1 with Maglie doing the chucking.

It turned out that those were victories 4, 5 and 6, in a Giant string that reached 16 and put them right in the running as the Dodgers began to get the jitters.

So far this season Brooklyn has beaten the Giants 12 times in 18 games. That six-game difference almost represents the gap between the two clubs.

Maglie is 3-1 against Brooklyn this year and Branca is 2-2 against New York. Hearn is 1-2 against Brooklyn and Newcombe is 4-1 over the Giants.

Deny Hagerstown To Lose Franchise

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 31 (AP)—Hagerstown Braves owner Eugene J. C. Raney denied today reports that any other city will get the Braves' Interstate Baseball League franchise.

Raney said his denial was prompted by reports of a Washington sports writer that the Hagerstown franchise would be moved to Silver Spring, Md., or Reading, Pa. because of a lack of attendance in Hagerstown.

First Refusal Cops Feature At Saratoga

Eric Guerin Rides Vanderbilt Colt

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP) — Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's First Refusal had no Tom Fool to contend with today as he rushed to an impressive victory in the Oneida purse, feature of the rather ordinary program.

The son of Great Discovery showed his class unmistakably by setting the pace, then standing off repeated challenges in a torrid stretch drive. With Eric Guerin pushing on him, the good-looking colt beat Mrs. R. H. Heighe's Seer by a short length, going over the six furlongs in a non-impressive 1:13 2-5.

Lazy F Ranch's Putout, which had won his first start under colors, was third, a half-length farther back, while Mill River Stable's Southarlington, trying for his third straight score, was a fading fourth in the field of seven juveniles.

First Refusal raced with Tom Fool in his last start, and after showing the way to Greentree's hopeful favorite for a halfmile gave way under extreme pressure. But there was no such horse as that to compete with this time, though the Vanderbilt colt had to be vigorously urged by Guerin to reward the form students.

Ridgeley Evens Playoff Series

Ridgeley American Legion tossers evened their playoff semi-final series with Wiley Ford yesterday at Carpenter's field by turning back the visitors 8-7.

James Flanagan and Paul Fisher drove home the winning runs for the Ridgeley team in the fifth, breaking a 5-5 deadlock. Flanagan and Nield starred afield for the winners.

Bob Thompson with two hits and Chris Lockard with a homerun paced the Ridgeley batters while Bill Houdershell had three bingles for Wiley Ford.

The third and deciding game of the series will be played next Thursday on Fort Ashby's neutral field beginning at 6 p. m. The Score:

Frank Sedgman Rallies To Beat Tony Trabert

Aussie Advances To National Semi-Finals

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—Tony Trabert, the 21-year-old bombshell from Cincinnati, came close to blowing Frank Sedgman right out of the National Tennis championships today, but in the end the greatest of the Australians employed his superior poise to survive, and Tony left the stadium to the cheers of nearly 10,000 fans roaring in his ears.

The scores of the thrilling match, in which Sedgman qualified to face defending champion Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., in one of Sunday's semi-finals, were 3-6, 6-2, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Larsen had to win two matches to keep pace with the blond Aussie. First the coast lefty finished off Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 3-6, 7-5 in a match halted by darkness last night, and then he soundly licked his former nemesis, Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-8, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4 in his quarter-final test.

Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., playing a round behind the field after being laid up for a day with a leg infection, had no difficulty at all subduing Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. The Wimbledon and Australian champion was limping slightly and treating the leg very gingerly, but his stroking was much too severe for Clark.

In one of tomorrow's quarterfinals, Savitt will collide with Budge Patty of Los Angeles, the player who preceded him as Wimbledon titlist. The other will match Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., against Vic Seixas, the handsome Philadelphian who upset Ken McGregor of Australia in the previous round.

Two women's semi-finalists also were decided during the day. Second-seeded Shirley Fry of Akron, O., survived a very shaky first set to defeat Kay Tuckey of England, 9-7, 3-6, 6-2, and Maureen Connolly of San Diego blasted Jean Quertier of England off the stadium court by 6-3, 6-3.

Miss Fry's semi-final opponent will be decided tomorrow in a match between Mrs. Magda Rurac of Los Angeles and Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith of England. Doris Hart of Miami figures to defeat Nancy Chaffee of Beverly Hills in Miss Connolly's bracket.

Eagle Eye Captures Atlantic City Purse

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 31 (AP)—Jerry McCarthy Stables' Eagle Eye accounted for the Defense Bond Purse, feature number of Atlantic City's drive to spur the sale of defense bonds. Eagle Eye turned back Carolyn K Stable's Happy Task by three-quarters of a length to register his second straight victory.

Eagle Eye and Happy Task waged a private duel for the honors with Jack Gavegnano's Pensava taking the third award four lengths away.

The crowd of 13,633 installed Eagle Eye a stout second choice in the wagering and he paid $6.60, $3.00 and $2.40. Happy Task, the favorite, returned $3.00, $2.40 and Pensava, $2.60.

B'nai B'rith Tossers Beat Lions, 4 To 3

Error Produces Winning Score In 11th Inning

An error in the 11th inning enabled Bob Allen of B'nai B'rith to score from third with the winning tally as the B'nai B'rith tossers defeated the Lions 4-3 in the opener of their final playoff series for the Hot Stove League championship last night at Penn Avenue field.

Two runs in the fifth inning by B'nai B'rith deadlocked the score at 3-3 and sent the contest into overtime as Dawson of the Lions and Dorsel Kline of the winners hooked up in a brilliant hurling duel. Kline fanned 18 enemy batsmen and Dawson chalked up 16 whiffs.

Trailing 3-1 in the fifth the winners tallied twice when Galen McKenzie singled and scored on Joe Conroy's triple. Conroy was out at the plate on Kline's fielder's choice. Kline then stole second and third and tallied when Jerry Yankelevitz grounded to the pitcher for the second out.

A diet of zeros then dotted the scoreboard until the 11th. Allen opened the frame with a base on balls and advanced to second on Paul Eaton's sacrifice. He moved to third as Bill Lewis bounced out to the third baseman and scored when the Lions first baseman bobbled McKenzie's bouncer.

McKenzie collected four hits in six appearances at the platter including a three-bagger and two doubles. Conroy and Kline had three-base knocks and Jerry Yankelevitz a two-bagger also for the winning nine. Poling, with two bingles, including a triple, topped the losers' attack. The box:

Maryland Football Squad's Spirit May Bring Terps Unbeaten Season

Lynn Beightol Being Groomed In Backfield

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Aug. 31—(AP)—Leaders of Maryland's football squad feel they've got the spirit this season to go with last year's ability to make the unbeaten combination expected of them.

"This year the fellows know that no position is cinched and they're out to get them," said Co-Captain Dave Cianelli of Hagerstown, Md., today. "Last year was practically a senior team and the others naturally weren't knocking themselves out."

Jack Scarbath, who as quarterback has his hands right on the squad's pulse, had the same feeling.

"The spirit is better this year and we've got a winning attitude," said the Baltimorean who last season was twice named Southern Conference sophomore of the week.

They both were referring to an unusual amount of new blood on the squad turning out for the start of practice.

Although 22 of last year's lettermen are back, Coach Jim Tatum probably will work several sophomores into the regular lineups. And he's going to carry four freshmen who are eligible for the varsity this season.

Several other experienced hands are ready to fill in, but it could be that better sophs will beat them out. In this category are Paul Lindsay, an end from Ridgeley, W. Va., Bob Morgan, a 235-pound guard from Freeport, Pa., Stanley Jones, another 235-pounder from Lemoyne, Pa., and Bill Maletzky, 220-pounder from White Plains, N. Y.

However, Coach Tatum is looking ahead as usual and will groom Freshmen Lynn Beightol of Cumberland for quarterback and Dick Bieleski of Baltimore for fullback.

The other two freshmen prospects are Dom Stala of Aliquippa, Pa., and Stanley Fischer of Pittsburgh. The flanks are the biggest holes to fill so they may be playing.

County Coon Hunters Association Plans First Field Trial Sunday

Raines' Farm To Be Site For Program

A permit to hold a racoon dog field trial has been granted the Allegany County Coon Hunters Association by Ernest A. Vaughn, director of the State of Maryland Game and Inland Fish Commission, Secretary James Bowling announced yesterday.

The trial will be held on Raines' Farm, eight miles east of Cumberland off Route 40 tomorrow beginning at 10:30 a. m. Bowling said and indications are that approximately 20 dogs will be entered in the event.

Vaughn's permission to stage the coon dog trial carried the stipulation that a tame animal would be used and that no hunting or pursuit of wild racoons would be undertaken during the program.

The coon dog event will be the first this season, Bowling explained and a special added attraction of placing a coon on a log in water will be provided in addition to the regulation line and tree trials.

Merwin Hast, president of the Coon Hunters Association, will auction off the dogs at the beginning of each heat during trials and the person claiming the winning ticket on the victorious dog in each event will claim the proceeds on a 60-40 basis with the organization.

At least six trials are expected and a final champion line dog and champion tree dog will be awarded prizes. One animal may win both top prizes, Bowling went on.

W. Md. Softball Tourney To Be Held At Penn Avenue

Invitational Series Is Set Sept. 11 To 14

Area League Champs To Vie For Honors In Rec Program

The first annual Western Maryland Invitational Softball Tournament will be held Sept. 11 through 14 at Penn Avenue field under the sponsorship of the City Rec Department, Edmund F. Hoey, director announced yesterday.

League champions from four area circuits will be invited to enter the tournament which is being sponsored for the purpose of raising funds for a new youth baseball league for 15 and 16 year old boys, Hoey said.

Invitations have been extended to the Eagles and Elks of the Rocking Chair League, Corriganville and LaVale of the County League, Hercules Powder Co. and C&P Telephone Co., of the Industrial League and the Amvets and Cunninghams of the City Recreation League.

Seeded teams will be the league champions of each loop—Eagles, Corriganville, Hercules and Amvets. These teams will draw for positions in the tournament and then draw opponents in two brackets, Hoey decared.

Games will be played at Penn Avenue field beginning at 6:15 p. m. with the nightcap of the double bill set for 7:45 under the lights.

The quarter finals will be held Sept. 11 and 12 and the semi-finals Sept. 14. The finals will get underway at 6:15 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 15.

All proceeds of the tournament will go toward a four-team uniformed baseball league for 15 and 16 year old youths which will be known as the "Sportsman's League."

Trophies will be awarded to the championship team, individual members of the winning squad, and to the outstanding player of the tourney. The championship trophy will be a rotating prize which must be captured three times in a row for permanent possession, Hoey explained.

Plans currently call for the invited teams to hold practice sessions under the lights at the South End field Sept. 6-9.

A meeting to further plans for the tournament will be held at the Rec Department office in the City Hall, Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 8 p. m. Teams accepting invitations are urged to notify the City Rec Department immediately, phone 5993.

Speedboats Tune Up For Cup Race

Week-end Regatta On Detroit River

DETROIT, Aug. 31 (INS)—Powerboaters from across the nation readied their sleek hydroplanes today for a crack at two major trophies during the Labor Day week-end regatta on the Detroit River.

On the block will be the Henry Ford memorial trophy, which goes tomorrow, and one of the big three powerboating awards — The Silver Cup—on Labor Day. At least six boats are ready to go for the Ford trophy.

Chuck Thompson, driving the perennial Detroit entry Miss Pepsi, has given the opposition a fabulous figure to shoot at—175 miles an hour. Thompson claims to have revved Miss Pepsi up to that speed during an unofficial trial run over a measured mile, and if true, the speed eclipses the world record of 160 miles an hour held by Stan Sayres' Seattle boat—Slo-Mo-Shun IV.

Swim In Thames Makes Filly Late For English Race

WINDSOR, England, Aug. 31 (AP)—A two-year-old filly named Forty-Nine was supposed to run in the Riverside Stakes at Windsor race course today.

An attendant was walking her along the Thames River en route to the track.

She broke loose, dived off the five foot bank and swam briskly across the river.

The attendant grabbed a rowboat and gave chase.

A veterinary surgeon followed the attendant.

Forty-Nine quietly surrendered on the other side of the river. The vet said she was okay and could run.

But to get back to the track the attendant had to detour a mile through Windsor to find a bridge.

Forty-Nine got back too late for the race.

Elks Blast Moose, 9-1, Win Series

Losers Lodge Protest In 4th

The Elks softball tossers landed on slow-balling Russ Minnicks yesterday in the final inning to score six runs and clinch a 9-1 victory over the Moose ten to capture the semi-final Rocking Chair League playoff series at Stitcher field.

The victors, blanked Thursday by Minnicks, trailed 1-0 after three innings yesterday before breaking the ice with three runs in the fourth frame during which the Moose team lodged an official protest with the league against a decision by the umpires.

With the Elks trailing by one run and runners on second and third, a balk was called against Minnicks and the runner on third allowed to score to tie the count. The Moose team contended the league rules stipulate a runner had to be batted in from third and the balk didn't count.

Showing a complete reversal of form from Thursday the Elks swatsmen batted out 16 hits to advance to the finals with the Eagles in the RC loop.

Four singles featured the Elks' attack in the fourth and in the big seventh inning which broke the game wide open two homeruns by Clifton Van Roby and Jim Wilkinson, each with two aboard, drove home the clinching tallies.

Carr led the losers at the plate with a triple while Van Roby had two singles in addition to his circuit clout and Orndorff had four for four.

Snappy fielding by the Elks also featured the contest. A fast double play in the second broke up a Moose rally and in the fifth three Moose singles went for naught when Minnicks was thrown out at the plate. The score:

ELKS	000 300 6—9	16	0
MOOSE	010 000 0—1	8	2

Underdonk and Garlitz. R. Minnicks and Wade.

Giants To Meet Dodgers Today In Crucial Test

Two-Game Series May Decide Flag

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—Leo Durocher pushes all his blue chips into the pot tomorrow and Sunday against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Leo is hoping his Giants will come up with four aces two days running and sweep the two-game set from the league-leaders.

If they don't, the New Yorkers are done. Seven games behind the Brooks with only 25 to go, the Giants must take the two to stay in the running. Even a sweep will leave them five lengths behind going into the Labor Day doubleheaders.

Tomorrow at the Polo Grounds it will be Sal Maglie (17-5), the curve-balling ace of the Giants, against the fast-balling Ralph Branca (12-5). On Sunday, Jim Hearn (13-7) of the Giants and strapping Don Newcombe (17-7) of the Dodgers will match their speed in the payoff game.

Some 35,000 customers are expected tomorrow with a sell-out crowd of around 50,000 for Sunday. The two bumper turnouts will push the Giants over the million mark in home attendance. The Giants have drawn 927,857 to date.

Just 17 days ago, the Giants, apparently going nowhere, and trailing Brooklyn by 12½ games, whipped the Dodgers in the Polo Grounds, 4-2. The next day they did it again, 3-1 behind Hearn and then made it three in a row by 2-1 with Maglie doing the chucking.

It turned out that those were victories 4, 5 and 6, in a Giant string that reached 16 and put them right in the running as the Dodgers began to get the jitters.

So far this season Brooklyn has beaten the Giants 12 times in 18 games. That six-game difference almost represents the gap between the two clubs.

Maglie is 3-1 against Brooklyn this year and Branca is 2-2 against New York. Hearn is 1-2 against Brooklyn and Newcombe is 4-1 over the Giants.

Deny Hagerstown To Lose Franchise

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 31 (AP)—Hagerstown Braves owner Eugene J. C. Raney denied today reports that any other city will get the Braves' Interstate Baseball League franchise.

Raney said his denial was prompted by reports of a Washington sports writer that the Hagerstown franchise would be moved to Silver Spring, Md., or Reading, Pa. because of a lack of attendance in Hagerstown.

Maryland Football Squad's Spirit May Bring Terps Unbeaten Season

Lynn Beightol Being Groomed In Backfield

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Aug. 31—(AP)—Leaders of Maryland's football squad feel they've got the spirit this season to go with last year's ability to make the unbeaten combination expected of them.

"This year the fellows know that no position is cinched and they're out to get them," said Co-Captain Dave Cianelli of Hagerstown, Md., today. "Last year was practically a senior team and the others naturally weren't knocking themselves out."

Jack Scarbath, who as quarterback has his hands right on the squad's pulse, had the same feeling.

"The spirit is better this year and we've got a winning attitude," said the Baltimorean who last season was twice named Southern Conference sophomore of the week.

They both were referring to an unusual amount of new blood on the squad turning out for the start of practice.

Although 22 of last year's lettermen are back, Coach Jim Tatum probably will work several sophomores into the regular lineups. And he's going to carry four freshmen who are eligible for the varsity this season.

Several other experienced hands are ready to fill in, but it could be that better sophs will beat them out. In this category are Paul Lindsay, an end from Ridgeley, W. Va., Bob Morgan, a 235-pound guard from Freeport, Pa., Stanley Jones, another 235-pounder from Lemoyne, Pa., and Bill Maletzky, 220-pounder from White Plains, N. Y.

However, Coach Tatum is looking ahead as usual and will groom Freshmen Lynn Beightol of Cumberland for quarterback and Dick Bieleski of Baltimore for fullback.

The other two freshmen prospects are Dom Stala of Aliquippa, Pa., and Stanley Fischer of Pittsburgh. The flanks are the biggest holes to fill so they may be playing.

First Refusal Cops Feature At Saratoga

Eric Guerin Rides Vanderbilt Colt

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP) — Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's First Refusal had no Tom Fool to contend with today as he rushed to an impressive victory in the Oneida purse, feature of the rather ordinary program.

The son of Great Discovery showed his class unmistakably by setting the pace, then standing off repeated challenges in a torrid stretch drive. With Eric Guerin pushing on him, the good-looking colt beat Mrs. R. H. Heighe's Seer by a short length, going over the six furlongs in a non-impressive 1:13 2-5.

Lazy F Ranch's Putout, which had won his first start under colors, was third, a half-length farther back, while Mill River Stable's Southarlington, trying for his third straight score, was a fading fourth in the field of seven juveniles.

First Refusal raced with Tom Fool in his last start, and after showing the way to Greentree's hopeful favorite for a halfmile gave way under extreme pressure. But there was no such horse as that to compete with this time, though the Vanderbilt colt had to be vigorously urged by Guerin to reward the form students.

Ridgeley Evens Playoff Series

Ridgeley American Legion tossers evened their playoff semi-final series with Wiley Ford yesterday at Carpenter's field by turning back the visitors 8-7.

Bob Thompson with two hits and Chris Lockard with a homerun paced the Ridgeley batters while Bill Houdershell had three bingles for Wiley Ford.

The third and deciding game of the series will be played next Thursday on Fort Ashby's neutral field beginning at 6 p. m. The Score:

Frank Sedgman Rallies To Beat Tony Trabert

Aussie Advances To National Semi-Finals

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—Tony Trabert, the 21-year-old bombshell from Cincinnati, came close to blowing Frank Sedgman right out of the National Tennis championships today, but in the end the greatest of the Australians employed his superior poise to survive, and Tony left the stadium to the cheers of nearly 10,000 fans roaring in his ears.

The scores of the thrilling match, in which Sedgman qualified to face defending champion Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., in one of Sunday's semi-finals, were 3-6, 6-2, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Larsen had to win two matches to keep pace with the blond Aussie. First the coast lefty finished off Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 3-6, 7-5 in a match halted by darkness last night, and then he soundly licked his former nemesis, Gardnar Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-8, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4 in his quarter-final test.

Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., playing a round behind the field after being laid up for a day with a leg infection, had no difficulty at all subduing Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. The Wimbledon and Australian champion was limping slightly and treating the leg very gingerly, but his stroking was much too severe for Clark.

In one of tomorrow's quarter-finals, Savitt will collide with Budge Patty of Los Angeles, the player who preceded him as Wimbledon titlist. The other will match Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., against Vic Seixas, the handsome Philadelphian who upset Ken McGregor of Australia in the previous round.

Two women's semi-finalists also were decided during the day. Second-seeded Shirley Fry of Akron, O., survived a very shaky first set to defeat Kay Tuckey of England, 9-7, 3-6, 6-2, and Maureen Connolly of San Diego blasted Jean Quertier of England off the stadium court by 6-3, 6-3.

Miss Fry's semi-final opponent will be decided tomorrow in a match between Mrs. Magda Rurac of Los Angeles and Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith of England. Doris Hart of Miami figures to defeat Nancy Chaffee of Beverly Hills in Miss Connolly's bracket.

Eagle Eye Captures Atlantic City Purse

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 31 (AP)—Jerry McCarthy Stables' Eagle Eye accounted for the Defense Bond Purse, feature number of Atlantic City's drive to spur the sale of defense bonds. Eagle Eye turned back Carolyn K Stable's Happy Task by three-quarters of a length to register his second straight victory.

Eagle Eye and Happy Task waged a private duel for the honors with Jack Gavegnano's Pensava taking the third award four lengths away.

The crowd of 13,633 installed Eagle Eye a stout second choice in the wagering and he paid $6.60, $3.00 and $2.40. Happy Task, the favorite, returned $3.00, $2.40 and Pensava, $2.60.

B'nai B'rith Tossers Beat Lions, 4 To 3

Error Produces Winning Score In 11th Inning

An error in the 11th inning enabled Bob Allen of B'nai B'rith to score from third with the winning tally as the B'nai B'rith tossers defeated the Lions 4-3 in the opener of their final playoff series for the Hot Stove League championship last night at Penn Avenue field.

Two runs in the fifth inning by B'nai B'rith deadlocked the score at 3-3 and sent the contest into overtime as Dawson of the Lions and Dorsel Kline of the winners hooked up in a brilliant hurling duel. Kline fanned 18 enemy batsmen and Dawson chalked up 16 whiffs.

Trailing 3-1 in the fifth the winners tallied twice when Galen McKenzie singled and scored on Joe Conroy's triple. Conroy was out at the plate on Kline's fielder's choice. Kline then stole second and third and tallied when Jerry Yankelevitz grounded to the pitcher for the second out.

A diet of zeros then dotted the scoreboard until the 11th. Allen opened the frame with a base on balls and advanced to second on Paul Eaton's sacrifice. He moved to third as Bill Lewis bounced out to the third baseman and scored when the Lions first baseman bobbled McKenzie's bouncer.

McKenzie collected four hits in six appearances at the platter including a three-bagger and two doubles. Conroy and Kline had three-base knocks and Jerry Yankelevitz a two-bagger also for the winning nine. Poling, with two bingles, including a triple, topped the losers' attack. The box:

Brownies Drop Cleveland Further Behind, Win 6-3

Two Homers Help Defeat The Tribe

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31—(AP)—With Satchel Paige pitching a terrific clutch relief assignment against his old mates, the St. Louis Browns belted two homers and defeated the Cleveland Indians, 6 to 3 tonight. The defeat, Cleveland's third straight, sank the Indians a full game below the league-leading New York Yankees.

Paige, making his first appearance on the Municipal Stadium mound since the Indians dropped him in 1950, entered the game dramatically for St. Louis in the ninth inning with two Indians on base and nobody out.

Satch made things tough for himself by walking the first man to face him, Early Wynn, to fill the bases.

Then he made Dale Mitchell foul out, got Bob Avila to force George Stirnweiss at second, one run scoring, and wound up matters by fanning Larry Doby.

Paige's cool job saved the victory for Jim McDonald, who won his third against five losses.

Hank Arft accounted for three St. Louis runs, two on a homer in the fifth. Freddie Marsh belted one with the bases empty in the fifth. Score:

Raines' Farm To Be Site For Program

A permit to hold a racoon dog field trial has been granted the Allegany County Coon Hunters Association by Ernest A. Vaughn, director of the State of Maryland Game and Inland Fish Commission, Secretary James Bowling announced yesterday.

The trial will be held on Raines' Farm, eight miles east of Cumberland off Route 40 tomorrow beginning at 10:30 a. m. Bowling said and indications are that approximately 20 dogs will be entered in the event.

walk toward the Hutzell car, but Hutzell started the vehicle and ran him down. He said he sustained severe injuries including a compound fracture of the leg. He is represented by Paul M. Fletcher.

Other Suits Filed

Five suits totaling $8,750 were filed against the Tri-State Roofing Company as a result of a fire last April 6 in Piedmont, W. Va.

All 10 plaintiffs accused the company of operating a tar pot within three feet of the Rizer Building, although a town ordinance reportedly prohibits use of a tarpot within 20 feet of buildings.

The plaintiffs said the Rizer building caught fire and the blaze spread to other buildings, occupied by some of the plaintiffs. The suits were filed by Charles H. Rizer, Harry F. Rizer, Elsie Rizer Walton, Louise Rizer Clark, Frank Y. Rizer, Pietro Dell Orco, Harry McCulloh, Jr., his wife, Elizabeth J. McCulloh, Mrs. Morris A. Shaw, and Mrs. Thomas Grove, Jr. They are represented by Cobey, Carscaden and Gilchrist.

Meanwhile, the Mayor and Council of Westernport filed suit for $6,760.25 against Lewis and Bowman, Inc., contractors who worked on the Savage River Dam.

The town officials said the contractors damaged water pipes leading to one of the town's supply dams and passing under land on which the contractors were working.

They said the town not only had to repair the pipes, but had to purchase water from outside sources. Edward J. Ryan is attorney for the town.

Carolina Dye and Myrtle May Buckholtz vs. William Frederick Jones, No. 22340 Equity, in the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of the Bill of Complaint in the above entitled case is to secure a decree declaring the defendant, William Frederick Jones, legally dead.

The Bill of Complaint states that the said William F. Jones enlisted in the Army of the United States at the beginning of World War II and was a private in Company H, 141st Infantry, serial No. RA 33201200, and was on the 31st day of October 1943 stationed a few miles North of Naples in Italy; that on said day, along with some other soldiers, he was granted a few hours leave; that he and they went to Naples by trucks, and when the said trucks had assembled to return to camp, they were all there ready to return, except William F. Jones, who was not there and who did not appear up to the time they left to return to camp; that from that day to this his whereabouts have been unknown, and none of his friends, fellow soldiers or his family have heard from or anything about him; that the plaintiffs who are his aunts have made diligent inquiry about him and searched for him among his fellow soldiers and have written to him many times at the address which had been given them at the time of his induction and at which they were accustomed to finding him; that more than seven years have elapsed since the said William F. Jones was last heard of or from; that after his enlistment or induction, he took out a National Service Life Insurance Policy, dated November 1, 1942, Certificate No. N-4,349,765, with his aunt, Myrtle May Buckholtz, named as beneficiary, and another policy for $5,000.00, dated May 17, 1943, Certificate N-12-704,211, with his aunt, Carolina Dye named as beneficiary; that the said beneficiaries have been advised by the Adjutant's General's Office of the United States Army that their claims for insurance could not be considered until at least seven years after the said soldier, William F. Jones, had been missing or had disappeared; and that they have been further advised that their claims cannot be considered until so declared by a proceeding to be initiated and carried on through the Civil Courts by the interested parties; hence the filing of the Bill of Complaint in this Court, which has jurisdiction of all the parties.

It is thereupon this 23rd day of August, 1951, by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, ordered that the Complainants cause a copy of this order, setting forth the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, to be inserted in some daily newspaper published in Allegany County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 25th day of September, 1951, giving notice to the said William Frederick Jones, or to whom it may concern, to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of October 1951, to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Other Suits Filed

Five suits totaling $8,750 were filed against the Tri-State Roofing Company as a result of a fire last April 6 in Piedmont, W. Va.

All 10 plaintiffs accused the company of operating a tar pot within three feet of the Rizer Building, although a town ordinance reportedly prohibits use of a tarpot within 20 feet of buildings.

The plaintiffs said the Rizer building caught fire and the blaze spread to other buildings, occupied by some of the plaintiffs. The suits were filed by Charles H. Rizer, Harry F. Rizer, Elsie Rizer Walton, Louise Rizer Clark, Frank Y. Rizer, Pietro Dell Orco, Harry McCulloh, Jr., his wife, Elizabeth J. McCulloh, Mrs. Morris A. Shaw, and Mrs. Thomas Grove, Jr. They are represented by Cobey, Carscaden and Gilchrist.

Meanwhile, the Mayor and Council of Westernport filed suit for $6,760.25 against Lewis and Bowman, Inc., contractors who worked on the Savage River Dam.

The town officials said the contractors damaged water pipes leading to one of the town's supply dams and passing under land on which the contractors were working.

They said the town not only had to repair the pipes, but had to purchase water from outside sources. Edward J. Ryan is attorney for the town.

Carolina Dye and Myrtle May Buckholtz vs. William Frederick Jones, No. 22340 Equity, in the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of the Bill of Complaint in the above entitled case is to secure a decree declaring the defendant, William Frederick Jones, legally dead.

The Bill of Complaint states that the said William F. Jones enlisted in the Army of the United States at the beginning of World War II and was a private in Company H, 141st Infantry, serial No. RA 33201200, and was on the 31st day of October 1943 stationed a few miles North of Naples in Italy; that on said day, along with some other soldiers, he was granted a few hours leave; that he and they went to Naples by trucks, and when the said trucks had assembled to return to camp, they were all there ready to return, except William F. Jones, who was not there and who did not appear up to the time they left to return to camp; that from that day to this his whereabouts have been unknown, and none of his friends, fellow soldiers or his family have heard from or anything about him; that the plaintiffs who are his aunts have made diligent inquiry about him and searched for him among his fellow soldiers and have written to him many times at the address which had been given them at the time of his induction and at which they were accustomed to finding him; that more than seven years have elapsed since the said William F. Jones was last heard of or from; that after his enlistment or induction, he took out a National Service Life Insurance Policy, dated November 1, 1942, Certificate No. N-4,349,765, with his aunt, Myrtle May Buckholtz, named as beneficiary, and another policy for $5,000.00, dated May 17, 1943, Certificate N-12-704,211, with his aunt, Carolina Dye named as beneficiary; that the said beneficiaries have been advised by the Adjutant's General's Office of the United States Army that their claims for insurance could not be considered until at least seven years after the said soldier, William F. Jones, had been missing or had disappeared; and that they have been further advised that their claims cannot be considered until so declared by a proceeding to be initiated and carried on through the Civil Courts by the interested parties; hence the filing of the Bill of Complaint in this Court, which has jurisdiction of all the parties.

It is thereupon this 23rd day of August, 1951, by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, ordered that the Complainants cause a copy of this order, setting forth the object and substance of the Bill of Complaint, to be inserted in some daily newspaper published in Allegany County, Maryland, once a week for four successive weeks before the 25th day of September, 1951, giving notice to the said William Frederick Jones, or to whom it may concern, to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 15th day of October 1951, to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Jim Henaghan, who was Robert Walker's closest friend and was present when Bob died, told me:

"What breaks my heart is that he was really coming along so well. Bob was still under psychiatric treatment but those emotional spells he suffered were coming further and further apart.

"For weeks he's been on a 'health kick,' bringing the boys to the beach every day, playing handball, getting hepped on vitamins and that sort of thing.

"No one ever knew what periodically brought on these violent reactions—which lasted such a short time and then he was himself again.

"I sincerely believe if Bob could have held on a little longer he would have been completely well."

Now that muscle-toned Singer Vaughn Monroe is giving movies a fling at Republic, it begins to look as if he likes the career he took up after first hitting big in radio and TV.

Abby Greshler (who discovered Martin and Lewis, the next best thing to two Texas oil fields) wants to star Vaughn and his baritone in a technicolor picture called "King Of The Rodeo." In this he is associated with Willard Alexander.

Could be the boys got the idea because Monroe replaces Gene Autry in this season's Madison Square Rodeo.

Jaycees To Hold Picnic September 9

The Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce will hold its annual summer outing Sunday, September 9, at Camp Potomac, operated by Potomac Council, Boy Scouts, near Oldtown.

The program will start at 2 p. m., according to Henry A. Mackey, president, and will include canoeing, swimming, softball, badminton, volley ball and horseshoes. The entertainment committee is headed by Bruce Douglas and Richard Sell.

The meals will be served in the mess hall by the Scout camp cooks.

The Jaycees will hold a general membership meeting at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club Wednesday at 8 p. m.

A total of 26,886 persons travelled from the United States to Venezuela in the year ending June 30, 1950.

In just one month your figure will boast new slimness and trimness if you follow the routine outlined today!

SECRETS OF CHARM

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

There is a nostalgia about the end of summer — particularly for those who, when they start getting into their fall clothes, find that their figures haven't come back from vacation with them!

But you can bring your figure right up to the minute with just a few easy gyrations if you are only willing to go through them daily for a short period, say a month.

Four-Week Dividends

Hold your calories to 1200 a day (see "Beauty Diet" offered below) and you will lose ten pounds in a month. Take the calisthenics in the quantities prescribed and you will trim off one to two inches all around in the same period.

To whittle your waist: Stand with your feet apart, your hips tucked well under, your abdomen pulled in and your arms extended over your head. Keeping your left arm raised, bend forward from the waist and simultaneously swing your right arm until your hand touches your left toe. Come back to starting position.

To trim your hips: Lie on the floor on your back with your arms over head. Bend both knees up to your chest. Keeping your legs together, extend them full length to a position that is just off the floor on your extreme right side. Holding them over this spot, raise them as high as they will go. Return to starting position. Repeat on the left side. Make all movements continuous except when you need a breather. Then relax. Ten times daily for the complete routine is enough for a start; increase to twenty after two weeks.

Holding The Beauty Line

To flatten your abdomen: Still on your back and with arms over head, but the soles of your feet firmly on the floor, raise your hips slightly off the floor and pull — pull — pull in your abdomen. Return to starting position and repeat twenty times night and morning.

Hard? Yes — but how beautiful are the results!

P. S. from J. R. P.
YOUR BEAUTY DIET

No matter what your weight problem — whether you want to gain, lose or remain the same — YOUR BEAUTY DIET will provide you with a safe and sane pattern of laboratory-tested menus that can be followed by the entire family according to each individual's needs. YOUR BEAUTY DIET is a way of eating, not starving, and the tasteful, appetizing meals it contains require no extra planning or preparation! For the booklet, write to me in care of this newspaper and enclose 10c in coin to help cover cost, plus stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Speeding Report Given By Police

An analysis of motor vehicle arrests in the city during a month's period show the anti-speeding drive being conducted by the Police Department is showing its effects.

In a message to members of the force, John J. Long, police and fire commissioner, commended members of the force for their work, especially Officers Kenneth Morrissey, Richard Lashley, Joseph Stitcher, Donald H. Smith and E. P. Wilson, for the commendable job in curbing speeding and reckless driving.

The analysis shows the following arrests, which resulted in $350 in fines and forfeited bonds during the period between July 25 and August 25:

Speeding—Maryland Avenue and Oldtown Road, seven each; Greene Street, six; Bedford Road, five; Hill Top Drive, four; Centre Street, Braddock Road and Virginia Avenue, two each, and The Dingle and Washington Street, one each.

Driving through red lights, six; driving through stop signs, two, and driving wrong way on one way streets, one.

Commissioner Long stated the public does not realize that an officer endangers his life and the lives of others when he is engaged in hot pursuit of speeders.

The commissioner pointed out that with the installation of the radar speedmeter, this hazard will be eliminated.

Oak Wilt Fight May Be Hampered

A "question of funds" may hamper the Department of State Forests and Parks in stamping out the first known growth of oak wilt in Maryland, according to Joseph F. Kaylor, director.

Kaylor said the disease, found in a small area near Savage River Dam, should be killed off as soon as possible to prevent an epidemic. He added that it must be studied before fall or "there won't be any leaves to wilt."

Civil Air Patrol planes will fly over the area Saturday to spot infected areas. Kaylor's men will then cut down infected trees and treat healthy trees nearby with a poison which kills the wilt before it climbs the roots of the trees.

The little-understood disease starts from the leaves of oaks and wilts the leaves. No one knows how it spreads.

It cost the U. S. $2 billion annually to develop the atomic bomb.

Jim Henaghan, who was Robert Walker's closest friend and was present when Bob died, told me:

"What breaks my heart is that he was really coming along so well. Bob was still under psychiatric treatment but those emotional spells he suffered were coming further and further apart.

"For weeks he's been on a 'health kick,' bringing the boys to the beach every day, playing handball, getting hepped on vitamins and that sort of thing.

"No one ever knew what periodically brought on these violent reactions—which lasted such a short time and then he was himself again.

"I sincerely believe if Bob could have held on a little longer he would have been completely well."

Now that muscle-toned Singer Vaughn Monroe is giving movies a fling at Republic, it begins to look as if he likes the career he took up after first hitting big in radio and TV.

Abby Greshler (who discovered Martin and Lewis, the next best thing to two Texas oil fields) wants to star Vaughn and his baritone in a technicolor picture called "King Of The Rodeo." In this he is associated with Willard Alexander.

Could be the boys got the idea because Monroe replaces Gene Autry in this season's Madison Square Rodeo.

Joan Fontaine so charmed by England and London, she is furnishing a flat in Mayfair.

Jaycees To Hold Picnic September 9

The Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce will hold its annual summer outing Sunday, September 9, at Camp Potomac, operated by Potomac Council, Boy Scouts, near Oldtown.

The program will start at 2 p. m., according to Henry A. Mackey, president, and will include canoeing, swimming, softball, badminton, volley ball and horseshoes. The entertainment committee is headed by Bruce Douglas and Richard Sell.

The meals will be served in the mess hall by the Scout camp cooks.

The Jaycees will hold a general membership meeting at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club Wednesday at 8 p. m.

A total of 26,886 persons travelled from the United States to Venezuela in the year ending June 30, 1950.

In just one month your figure will boast new slimness and trimness if you follow the routine outlined today!

SECRETS OF CHARM

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

There is a nostalgia about the end of summer — particularly for those who, when they start getting into their fall clothes, find that their figures haven't come back from vacation with them!

But you can bring your figure right up to the minute with just a few easy gyrations if you are only willing to go through them daily for a short period, say a month.

Four-Week Dividends

Hold your calories to 1200 a day (see "Beauty Diet" offered below) and you will lose ten pounds in a month. Take the calisthenics in the quantities prescribed and you will trim off one to two inches all around in the same period.

To whittle your waist: Stand with your feet apart, your hips tucked well under, your abdomen pulled in and your arms extended over your head. Keeping your left arm raised, bend forward from the waist and simultaneously swing your right arm until your hand touches your left toe. Come back to starting position.

To trim your hips: Lie on the floor on your back with your arms over head. Bend both knees up to your chest. Keeping your legs together, extend them full length to a position that is just off the floor on your extreme right side. Holding them over this spot, raise them as high as they will go. Return to starting position. Repeat on the left side. Make all movements continuous except when you need a breather. Then relax. Ten times daily for the complete routine is enough for a start; increase to twenty after two weeks.

Holding The Beauty Line

To flatten your abdomen: Still on your back and with arms over head, but the soles of your feet firmly on the floor, raise your hips slightly off the floor and pull — pull — pull in your abdomen. Return to starting position and repeat twenty times night and morning.

Hard? Yes — but how beautiful are the results!

P. S. from J. R. P.

YOUR BEAUTY DIET is a way of eating, not starving, and the tasteful, appetizing meals it contains require no extra planning or preparation! Speeding Report Given By Police

An analysis of motor vehicle arrests in the city during a month's period show the anti-speeding drive being conducted by the Police Department is showing its effects.

In a message to members of the force, John J. Long, police and fire commissioner, commended members of the force for their work, especially Officers Kenneth Morrissey, Richard Lashley, Joseph Stitcher, Donald H. Smith and E. P. Wilson, for the commendable job in curbing speeding and reckless driving.

Speeding—Maryland Avenue and Oldtown Road, seven each; Greene Street, six; Bedford Road, five; Hill Top Drive, four; Centre Street, Braddock Road and Virginia Avenue, two each, and The Dingle and Washington Street, one each.

Driving through red lights, six; driving through stop signs, two, and driving wrong way on one way streets, one.

Commissioner Long stated the public does not realize that an officer endangers his life and the lives of others when he is engaged in hot pursuit of speeders.

The commissioner pointed out that with the installation of the radar speedmeter, this hazard will be eliminated.

Oak Wilt Fight May Be Hampered

A "question of funds" may hamper the Department of State Forests and Parks in stamping out the first known growth of oak wilt in Maryland, according to Joseph F. Kaylor, director.

Kaylor said the disease, found in a small area near Savage River Dam, should be killed off as soon as possible to prevent an epidemic. He added that it must be studied before fall or "there won't be any leaves to wilt."

Civil Air Patrol planes will fly over the area Saturday to spot infected areas. Kaylor's men will then cut down infected trees and treat healthy trees nearby with a poison which kills the wilt before it climbs the roots of the trees.

The little-understood disease starts from the leaves of oaks and wilts the leaves. No one knows how it spreads.

It cost the U. S. $2 billion annually to develop the atomic bomb.

Coons Don't Like Music But People Do

There's always been trouble about the corn around Chappaqua. The coons get it. Or maybe the possums.

John Crosby

No one quite knows. The new Chappaqua resident—a naturalized citizen of Westchester which automatically confers special distinctions on him — generally arrives afire with ambition to raise his own corn, to get away finally and forever from the store-bought stuff. Presently the stalks arise. The corn ripens. The older residents watch wryly. Then the coons (or maybe the possums) descend. The corn vanishes. After a couple of seasons the new Chappaguan gives up home-grown corn and resigns himself finally and forever to the store-bought stuff.

Last year an Austrian moved into the vicinity and, after checking the corn situation, made careful inquiries about all-night radio programs. He was referred to Art Ford, the all-night disk jockey on WNEW. The Austrian's corn field flourished and still does. He has a radio tuned to WNEW which dishes out Art Ford and the Milkman's Matinee till dawn and the coons—or maybe the possums—lose their appetites. No one knows why, exactly. Perhaps they're entranced by the music. Or just possibly they're repelled by Art Ford.

One notion, kicked around for awhile, was that the coons—let's keep the possums out of this—stayed away because they thought people were in the cornfield. This idea was quickly discarded. Radio has never fooled anyone, not even people, for very long. It certainly couldn't fool a smart coon. My own theory, in case you're interested, is that the coons can't abide a lot of blaring music in their ears while they're eating. It's a theory I've tried to advance to a number of noted restaurateurs without success for years. I'm glad the theory has been endorsed by at least part of the animal kingdom.

And that small anecdote leads us gently to where radio and music are headed (besides cornfields.) Movies, the movie people will tell you, are better than ever. But music is more popular than ever, according to a lot of portents. Television has made enormous inroads on radio's audience. But a lot of people are getting bored to death with television comics and television whodunits. They don't turn back to radio comics and radio whodunits because they are the same comics, the same whodunits, and there isn't much sense in getting them in one dimension when you can procure them in two.

• — • — •

When they turn off the TV set—I'm just guessing here—they turn on the music—either by radio or phonograph. Recently, according to "Variety," Herman Starr, vice president of Warner Bros. in charge of their huge music publishing enterprises, predicted that the music business would be bigger than ever because of radio. The independent radio stations have long since turned to music as their answer to network radio and have done pretty well with it. Now, even the networks (at least in the summertime) are using music, too. The CBS summer Sunday line-up is almost solid music from 1 to 11 p. m.

A survey made by Pulse, Inc., last May showed that while the network radio audience declined by 32 per cent over the past two years, the audience for independent radio stations rose by 10 per cent. In other words, television murders the networks but may even help the independents, many of whom subsist on music and news almost exclusively.

Writes Paul Martin, manager of WCC in Hartford, Conn., which relies heavily on that formula: "The big story in the whole radio picture is that music and news will survive the TV onslaught. We are now third (Hooper) in the afternoon share of audience, trailing only CBS and NBC and leading four other stations. The other two independents and the Mutual station are carrying baseball. Baseball used to beat us to a fare-thee-well. Not this year." (They're looking at it on television.)

• — • — •

A lot of other independents who emphasize music and news—WDIA in Memphis, WHIM in Providence, WHDH in Boston, WJJD in Chicago, WBNY in Buffalo, WLEE in Richmond, WITH in Baltimore are giving the networks a run for their money with music and news. And so is the old-fashioned phonograph. At a meeting of RCA executives not long ago, great pride was taken in the fact that RCA's record business was booming. The suggestion was made that, if people had so much time to listen to records, it was just possible they were turning to the phonograph as a relief from NBC radio or NBC television (both RCA subsidiaries). It's a disturbing thought and no one dwelt on it long.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

No one quite knows. The new Chappaqua resident—a naturalized citizen of Westchester which automatically confers special distinctions on him — generally arrives afire with ambition to raise his own corn, to get away finally and forever from the store-bought stuff. Presently the stalks arise. The corn ripens. The older residents watch wryly. Then the coons (or maybe the possums) descend. The corn vanishes. After a couple of seasons the new Chappaquan gives up home-grown corn and resigns himself finally and forever to the store-bought stuff.

Last year an Austrian moved into the vicinity and, after checking the corn situation, made careful inquiries about all-night radio programs. He was referred to Art Ford, the all-night disk jockey on WNEW. The Austrian's corn field flourished and still does. He has a radio tuned to WNEW which dishes out Art Ford and the Milkman's Matinee till dawn and the coons—or maybe the possums—lose their appetites. No one knows why, exactly. Perhaps they're entranced by the music. Or just possibly they're repelled by Art Ford.

One notion, kicked around for awhile, was that the coons—let's keep the possums out of this—stayed away because they thought people were in the cornfield. This idea was quickly discarded. Radio has never fooled anyone, not even people, for very long. It certainly couldn't fool a smart coon. My own theory, in case you're interested, is that the coons can't abide a lot of blaring music in their ears while they're eating. It's a theory I've tried to advance to a number of noted restaurateurs without success for years. I'm glad the theory has been endorsed by at least part of the animal kingdom.

And that small anecdote leads us gently to where radio and music are headed (besides cornfields.) Movies, the movie people will tell you, are better than ever. But music is more popular than ever, according to a lot of portents. Television has made enormous inroads on radio's audience. But a lot of people are getting bored to death with television comics and television whodunits. They don't turn back to radio comics and radio whodunits because they are the same comics, the same whodunits, and there isn't much sense in getting them in one dimension when you can procure them in two.

When they turn off the TV set—I'm just guessing here—they turn on the music—either by radio or phonograph. Recently, according to "Variety," Herman Starr, vice president of Warner Bros. in charge of their huge music publishing enterprises, predicted that the music business would be bigger than ever because of radio. The independent radio stations have long since turned to music as their answer to network radio and have done pretty well with it. Now, even the networks (at least in the summertime) are using music, too. The CBS summer Sunday line-up is almost solid music from 1 to 11 p. m.

A survey made by Pulse, Inc., last May showed that while the network radio audience declined by 32 per cent over the past two years, the audience for independent radio stations rose by 10 per cent. In other words, television murders the networks but may even help the independents, many of whom subsist on music and news almost exclusively.

Writes Paul Martin, manager of WCC in Hartford, Conn., which relies heavily on that formula: "The big story in the whole radio picture is that music and news will survive the TV onslaught. We are now third (Hooper) in the afternoon share of audience, trailing only CBS and NBC and leading four other stations. The other two independents and the Mutual station are carrying baseball. Baseball used to beat us to a fare-thee-well. Not this year." (They're looking at it on television.)

A lot of other independents who emphasize music and news—WDIA in Memphis, WHIM in Providence, WHDH in Boston, WJJD in Chicago, WBNY in Buffalo, WLEE in Richmond, WITH in Baltimore are giving the networks a run for their money with music and news. And so is the old-fashioned phonograph. At a meeting of RCA executives not long ago, great pride was taken in the fact that RCA's record business was booming. The suggestion was made that, if people had so much time to listen to records, it was just possible they were turning to the phonograph as a relief from NBC radio or NBC television (both RCA subsidiaries). It's a disturbing thought and no one dwelt on it long.

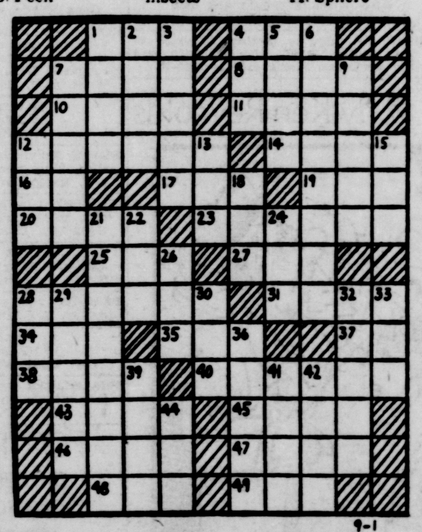
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

H A R J Q E Y H A R Q A R W Q H B S R B R H G J H A P R W Q B. H A R J Q C J U R B S Y X D T X I J D H R D T R Q C J U R B — Q Y B B R H H J.

Card Of Thanks

We take this means of publicly expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to those of our friends and neighbors who were so sympathetic and helpful during the illness and following the death of our beloved son, Gene Simpson. Especially are we grateful to those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral, those who sent floral tributes, the ministers Rev. M. J. King and Rev. Kenneth Hayes, and to all others who in any manner rendered assistance.
His Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles H. Perrin, who passed away September 1st, 1946.
Our family circle is broken,
The voice we loved is still,
Your place is vacant in our hearts,
No one can ever fill.
Flowers we place upon your grave
Will wither and decay,
But love for you who sleeps beneath,
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
His wife, Mrs. Rosie Perrin
and children, Thomas, Michael and Bertha.

Card Of Thanks

We take this means of publicly expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation to those of our friends and neighbors who were so sympathetic and helpful during the illness and following the death of our beloved son, Gene Simpson. Especially are we grateful to those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral, those who sent floral tributes, the ministers Rev. M. J. King and Rev. Kenneth Hayes, and to all others who in any manner rendered assistance.
His Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles H. Perrin, who passed away September 1st, 1946.
Our family circle is broken,
The voice we loved is still,
Your place is vacant in our hearts,
No one can ever fill.
Flowers we place upon your grave
Will wither and decay,
But love for you who sleeps beneath,
Will never fade away.
Sadly missed by
His wife, Mrs. Rosie Perrin
and children, Thomas, Michael and Bertha.

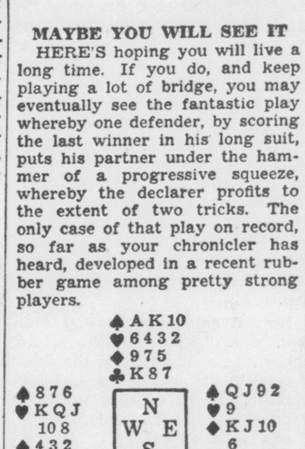
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

MAYBE YOU WILL SEE IT

HERE'S hoping you will live a long time. If you do, and keep playing a lot of bridge, you may eventually see the fantastic play whereby one defender, by scoring the last winner in his long suit, puts his partner under the hammer of a progressive squeeze, whereby the declarer profits to the extent of two tricks. The only case of that play on record, so far as your chronicler has heard, developed in a recent rubber game among pretty strong players.



(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1 ♣	1 ♥	Pass	1 NT
Pass	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT	Dbl

West scored his heart K and 8 when South held up, then led the Q to the A. The declarer carefully noted East's spade 2 and diamond 6 on the second and third hearts and realized that enough heart leads would squeeze him. So South led to the spade K and sent the heart 6 to West's 10, discarding the club 3 after East tossed the club 4. That poor defender had already been shortened a card apiece in each of his four-card suits.

At this juncture West could have beaten the contract by simply refusing to score his last heart, the J. That would assure East two tricks if West returned a spade. But we'd hate to name a player we are sure would make that brilliant stroke. This West did not. He laid down the heart J, the diamond 5 being shed from dummy, the 10 by East and the spade 4 by South. That was squeeze number one on East.

The diamond Q was now finessed, the A felled the K and the 8 squeezed East a second time as the club 7 was discarded from dummy. Now, if East broke his two top spades, the last three tricks would go to the club A and dummy's two spades. The club J which East tossed was just as bad, however, for it enabled South to score the club A and 9, then lead to the spade A for the final and game trick. Whichever suit East discarded from on the heart J would have been used to squeeze him the second time. He was helpless when West led the final heart—victim of a "progressive cannibal squeeze."

Your Weekend Question

You no doubt can recognize a safety play generally when you see one or make one. How are you at giving a good definition of such a play?

Distributed by King Features Syndicate

MIRROR OF YOUR MIND

By LAWRENCE GOULD
Consulting Psychologist

Should your child's imaginary playmate scare you?

Answer: No, says Sidonie M. Gruenberg in Baby Talk. Many normal children create unreal playmates whom they insist on your treating as real, even to the point of setting a place for them at table, and it is usually best to fall in with the game while letting your child realize that you know it is "only pretend." You can even learn about the real child's repressed feeling from the kinds of "naughtiness" for which he scolds the unreal one. Only if the make-believe relationship seems to eclipse your child's interest in real ones should you seek advice from a child guidance expert.

Do old folks need privacy?

Answer: Yes, says Dr. Hollis E. Clow of New York Hospital, White Plains, N. Y. They should not be cut off from their families entirely if this can be avoided, but it is better for them to have living accommodations that give them some privacy and to feel that they have interests and responsibilities of their own. Aging psychologically has little connection with physical changes and can be postponed almost indefinitely by maintaining healthy attitudes, interests and ambitions. What is more, by helping older people keep their minds young, you may avoid friction between them and their juniors.

Is man's prolonged infancy a handicap?

Answer: No, says Harold H. Punke of Alabama Polytechnic Institute in School and Society. If, on the one hand, the human infant is required to learn more and make more adjustments than the young of other species, he has also much greater capacities for growth and development, and his prolonged infancy and childhood provide a unique chance to exercise these capacities. Rather than over-stressing the child's helplessness and immaturity, the educator should be glad that he remains "plastic" so long, and hence has so much time in which to be trained to become a truly civilized member of society.

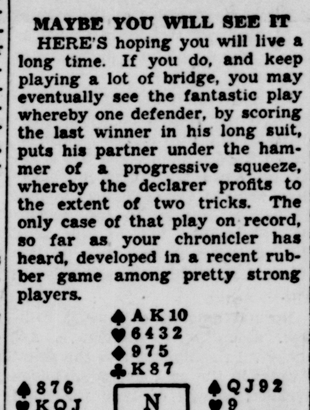
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

MAYBE YOU WILL SEE IT

HERE'S hoping you will live a long time. If you do, and keep playing a lot of bridge, you may eventually see the fantastic play whereby one defender, by scoring the last winner in his long suit, puts his partner under the hammer of a progressive squeeze, whereby the declarer profits to the extent of two tricks. The only case of that play on record, so far as your chronicler has heard, developed in a recent rubber game among pretty strong players.



(Dealer: South. Neither side vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1 ♣	1 ♥	Pass	1 NT
Pass	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT	Dbl

West scored his heart K and 8 when South held up, then led the Q to the A. The declarer carefully noted East's spade 2 and diamond 6 on the second and third hearts and realized that enough heart leads would squeeze him. So South led to the spade K and sent the heart 6 to West's 10, discarding the club 3 after East tossed the club 4. That poor defender had already been shortened a card apiece in each of his four-card suits.

At this juncture West could have beaten the contract by simply refusing to score his last heart, the J. That would assure East two tricks if West returned a spade. But we'd hate to name a player we are sure would make that brilliant stroke. This West did not. He laid down the heart J, the diamond 5 being shed from dummy, the 10 by East and the spade 4 by South. That was squeeze number one on East.

The diamond Q was now finessed, the A felled the K and the 8 squeezed East a second time as the club 7 was discarded from dummy. Now, if East broke his two top spades, the last three tricks would go to the club A and dummy's two spades. The club J which East tossed was just as bad, however, for it enabled South to score the club A and 9, then lead to the spade A for the final and game trick. Whichever suit East discarded from on the heart J would have been used to squeeze him the second time. He was helpless when West led the final heart—victim of a "progressive cannibal squeeze."

Your Weekend Question

You no doubt can recognize a safety play generally when you see one or make one. How are you at giving a good definition of such a play?

Distributed by King Features Syndicate

MIRROR OF YOUR MIND

By LAWRENCE GOULD
Consulting Psychologist

Should your child's imaginary playmate scare you?

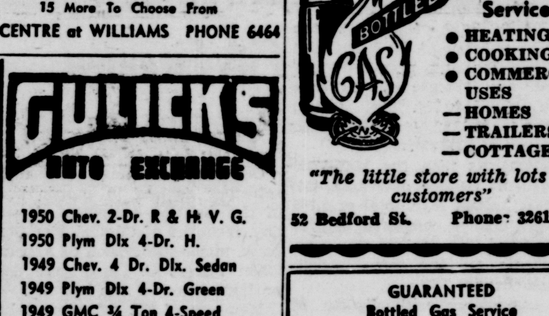
Answer: No, says Sidonie M. Gruenberg in Baby Talk. Many normal children create unreal playmates whom they insist on your treating as real, even to the point of setting a place for them at table, and it is usually best to fall in with the game while letting your child realize that you know it is "only pretend." You can even learn about the real child's repressed feeling from the kinds of "naughtiness" for which he scolds the unreal one. Only if the make-believe relationship seems to eclipse your child's interest in real ones should you seek advice from a child guidance expert.

Do old folks need privacy?

Answer: Yes, says Dr. Hollis E. Clow of New York Hospital, White Plains, N. Y. They should not be cut off from their families entirely if this can be avoided, but it is better for them to have living accommodations that give them some privacy and to feel that they have interests and responsibilities of their own. Aging psychologically has little connection with physical changes and can be postponed almost indefinitely by maintaining healthy attitudes, interests and ambitions. What is more, by helping older people keep their minds young, you may avoid friction between them and their juniors.

Is man's prolonged infancy a handicap?

Answer: No, says Harold M. Punke of Alabama Polytechnic Institute in School and Society. If, on the one hand, the human infant is required to learn more and make more adjustments than the young of other species, he has also much greater capacities for growth and development, and his prolonged infancy and childhood provide a unique chance to exercise these capacities. Rather than over-stressing the child's helplessness and immaturity, the educator should be glad that he remains "plastic" so long, and hence has so much time in which to be trained to become a truly civilized member of society.



Now is the time to plant . . . .

FREEDOM BALLOON FOUND—Wednesday thousands of propaganda balloons carrying friendship leaflets were released in Detroit to the people in Czechoslovakia. Later the same day one of the balloons was sighted in the clouds over the Glen Savage Dairy near Mt. Savage by Miss Annette Weimer, whose father is one of the owners of the dairy. Later it landed in a nearby pasture and had red, white and blue cord hanging from it. Shown above Miss Weimer can be seen holding one of the enclosed cards on which was printed "Crusade For Freedom, 308 Empire State Building, New York, General Lucius D. Clay, national chairman." The lettering SVOBODA, the Czechoslovakian word for freedom, can be seen printed on the plastic balloon.

Mayor Hopes Rec Board Persuades Hoey To Stay

Officials Regret Resignation Move

Mayor Thomas S. Post said yesterday that he hopes the City Recreation Board will be able to persuade Edmund F. Hoey to reconsider his resignation as city recreation director.

The Mayor and Council, he added, regret very much that Hoey has submitted his resignation to the group.

Under the City Recreation ordinance, a City Hall source said, the City Recreation Board is in charge of the recreation program.

This means that Hoey's resignation will have to be acted upon by the Board before coming to the attention of the Mayor and Council.

The Board, with Hoey's sanction, announced Thursday night that it will withhold the letter of resignation until after it meets with the recreation director at its Sepember 20 meeting.

The Board also passed a unanimous vote of confidence to Hoey for the splendid recreation program he has directed here.

Four Alarm Blaze Checked By Firemen

$2,000 Damages At Old Taylor Tin Mill

A four alarm fire yesterday afternoon caused about $2,000 damages to a one story brick building owned by Owen E. Hitchins, Dingle, formerly property of the N & G Taylor Tin Plate Mill Company near Virginia Avenue.

Cause of the fire which was fought for about an hour by city firemen was undetermined yesterday evening.

Former Wood Working Plant

The building which has been a wood working plant where paint brush handles had been manufactured, and up until about three months ago a storage house for waste paper, was damaged considerably inside and along the roof. The fire was discovered about 3:37 p. m.

Charlton Brothers Transportation Company warehouse which is nearby was endangered by the blaze and a spokesman for the company said seven of their tractor trailers had to be moved from the immediate area. A driver of the firm who had just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh noticed the flames and an alarm was turned in.

Three Companies Answer

South End received the first call at 3:37 p. m. and when Box 67 on Lafayette and Bowen Streets was pulled Central's hook and ladder went to the scene. Another pump and truck from Central also went to the fire. When the box at corner of Laing and Virginia was pulled East Side went to the scene but later returned to the station.

Central and South end firemen hooked up their pumps in fighting the blaze. The afternoon fire caused much excitement in the immediate area and smoke from the burning roof could be seen for some distance.

At 12:10 yesterday West Side answered a smoke scare at 322 Paca Street when a coffee pot boiled dry and the grounds began smoking, filling the house. No damage was reported.

Suits Totaling $350,000 Are Filed Against Gas Company

$20,000 Sought In Motor Vehicle Case

Damage suits totaling $385,510 were filed yesterday in Circuit Court, setting a one-day record for recent years. Three suits against the Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company accounted for $350,000 of the total.

The suits against the gas company resulted from an explosion last December which wrecked the home of the Sol S. Glickman family at Bowling Green and injured the Glickmans, their son and a guest.

Also listed as plaintiffs in the suit are the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., and the Home Insurance Company. The insurance firms sued the gas company to recover the $12,000 they paid Glickman for the loss of his home.

Blame Gas Leak

In their declarations, the Glickmans said the last was caused by gas leaking into their home from a faulty line.

They said the line was laid in 1938, about nine years before they moved into the house, and that the company approved the pipe as safe. Faults in the filled ground, they declared, caused the line to develop a break less than two feet from the point where it entered their home.

They added that gas seeped into their house unsuspected until last December 3, when Glickman, his wife Frances, and their son Ronald, now nine, returned from a trip and entered the basement of the house with a guest.

Glickman said he smelled gas and checked his gas furnace. His wife and son went to the kitchen to check their gas range. While Mrs. Glickman was investigating, he declared, the stove's pilot light set fire to nearby curtains. She called Glickman for help, but as he entered the room a violent explosion was touched off by the fire.

Home Is Destroyed

After their home was destroyed by the blast and resulting fire, the plaintiffs said, Gas company workmen dug up the line and hid it. They claimed the company refused to allow inspection of the line until State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher demanded to have a look.

Glickman, his wife and son all said they were permanently scarred, disfigured and injured as a result of burns. Glickman asked for $150,000, and his wife and son, for $100,000 each. The son's suit was filed through his father as next friend.

Attorneys for the Glickmans are William C. Walsh and Thomas B. Finan. The insurance companies are represented by the firm of Cobey, Carscaden and Gilchrist.

Files $20,000 Suit

Also filed yesterday was a $20,000 suit by Paul H. Slingloff against Ralph E. Hutzell. It resulted from an incident last January 14 at Mt. Savage, when the plaintiff said he was run over by a car driven by the defendant.

Slingloff said he parked at the Mt. Savage Bus Terminal at about 2 a. m. on the day of the accident. Hutzell, he said, had been driving behind him, but stopped when he did and turned off his lights.

The plaintiff said he started to

Dryest August On Record Ends With Hottest Day

Yesterday Cumberlanders sweltered in the hottest day thus far this year as recorded at the official U. S. Weather station in Constitution Park. The thermometer reached 98 degrees.

Another record was set yesterday, according to Robert R. Golden, superintendent of the local park, in that the past month was the driest August since official records have been kept in Cumberland, the past 40 years. Rainfall in the amount of 1.08 inches fell in the area. Second driest August was in 1939 when 1.20 inches of precipitation fell.

Normal amount of August rainfall, according to Golden is 3.48 inches. In comparison to the driest August in the past 40 years, Golden recalled a high of 12.20 inches of rainfall which fell in 1915.

The mercury soared to 96 twice this year once on July 22 and again on August 16 but yesterday's record high surpassed both days by two degrees. The low yesterday was 58 degrees and humidity was registered at 34 per cent.

The average temperature for last month was a little below normal, the average being 71.9 and the normal for the 31 day period being 72.5 degrees.

The Potomac River reading yesterday was 2.66 and after water was released from Savage River Dam the flow took on an increase to 3.08 feet.

Charges To Be Filed In Auto-Cycle Accident

Three charges will be preferred against Mrs. Phyllis Corbin, 28, of 322 Paca Street, in conjunction with an automobile accident Thursday night which sent a woman cyclist to Allegany Hospital.

Miss Mary Kathryn Miller, 21, who was admitted to the hospital with a fractured right leg and severe facial laceration was reported by attaches last night as being in "satisfactory" condition.

Officer Kenneth W. Morrissey reported that the car operated by Mrs. Corbin heading west on Washington Street, cut across in front of the motorcycle being driven east on Washington Street by Miss Miller. Miss Rosemary Blake, 21, of 723 North Mechanic Street, also riding on the cycle was not seriously hurt. Charges will be preferred when Miss Miller recovers from her injuries, police said.

Mayor Hopes Rec Board Persuades Hoey To Stay

Officials Regret Resignation Move

Mayor Thomas S. Post said yesterday that he hopes the City Recreation Board will be able to persuade Edmund F. Hoey to reconsider his resignation as city recreation director.

The Mayor and Council, he added, regret very much that Hoey has submitted his resignation to the group.

Under the City Recreation ordinance, a City Hall source said, the City Recreation Board is in charge of the recreation program.

This means that Hoey's resignation will have to be acted upon by the Board before coming to the attention of the Mayor and Council.

The Board, with Hoey's sanction, announced Thursday night that it will withhold the letter of resignation until after it meets with the recreation director at its Sepember 20 meeting.

The Board also passed a unanimous vote of confidence to Hoey for the splendid recreation program he has directed here.

Four Alarm Blaze Checked By Firemen

$2,000 Damages At Old Taylor Tin Mill

A four alarm fire yesterday afternoon caused about $2,000 damages to a one story brick building owned by Owen E. Hitchins, Dingle, formerly property of the N & G Taylor Tin Plate Mill Company near Virginia Avenue.

Cause of the fire which was fought for about an hour by city firemen was undetermined yesterday evening.

Former Wood Working Plant

The building which has been a wood working plant where paint brush handles had been manufactured, and up until about three months ago a storage house for waste paper, was damaged considerably inside and along the roof. The fire was discovered about 3:37 p. m.

Charlton Brothers Transportation Company warehouse which is nearby was endangered by the blaze and a spokesman for the company said seven of their tractor trailers had to be moved from the immediate area. A driver of the firm who had just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh noticed the flames and an alarm was turned in.

Three Companies Answer

South End received the first call at 3:37 p. m. and when Box 67 on Lafayette and Bowen Streets was pulled Central's hook and ladder went to the scene. Another pump and truck from Central also went to the fire. When the box at corner of Laing and Virginia was pulled East Side went to the scene but later returned to the station.

Central and South end firemen hooked up their pumps in fighting the blaze. The afternoon fire caused much excitement in the immediate area and smoke from the burning roof could be seen for some distance.

At 12:10 yesterday West Side answered a smoke scare at 322 Paca Street when a coffee pot boiled dry and the grounds began smoking, filling the house. No damage was reported.

Suits Totaling $350,000 Are Filed Against Gas Company

$20,000 Sought In Motor Vehicle Case

Damage suits totaling $385,510 were filed yesterday in Circuit Court, setting a one-day record for recent years. Three suits against the Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company accounted for $350,000 of the total.

The suits against the gas company resulted from an explosion last December which wrecked the home of the Sol S. Glickman family at Bowling Green and injured the Glickmans, their son and a guest.

Also listed as plaintiffs in the suit are the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., and the Home Insurance Company. The insurance firms sued the gas company to recover the $12,000 they paid Glickman for the loss of his home.

Blame Gas Leak

In their declarations, the Glickmans said the last was caused by gas leaking into their home from a faulty line.

They said the line was laid in 1938, about nine years before they moved into the house, and that the company approved the pipe as safe. Faults in the filled ground, they declared, caused the line to develop a break less than two feet from the point where it entered their home.

They added that gas seeped into their house unsuspected until last December 3, when Glickman, his wife Frances, and their son Ronald, now nine, returned from a trip and entered the basement of the house with a guest.

Glickman said he smelled gas and checked his gas furnace. His wife and son went to the kitchen to check their gas range. While Mrs. Glickman was investigating, he declared, the stove's pilot light set fire to nearby curtains. She called Glickman for help, but as he entered the room a violent explosion was touched off by the fire.

Home Is Destroyed

After their home was destroyed by the blast and resulting fire, the plaintiffs said, Gas company workmen dug up the line and hid it. They claimed the company refused to allow inspection of the line until State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher demanded to have a look.

Glickman, his wife and son all said they were permanently scarred, disfigured and injured as a result of burns. Glickman asked for $150,000, and his wife and son, for $100,000 each. The son's suit was filed through his father as next friend.

Attorneys for the Glickmans are William C. Walsh and Thomas B. Finan. The insurance companies are represented by the firm of Cobey, Carscaden and Gilchrist.

Files $20,000 Suit

Also filed yesterday was a $20,000 suit by Paul H. Slingloff against Ralph E. Hutzell. It resulted from an incident last January 14 at Mt. Savage, when the plaintiff said he was run over by a car driven by the defendant.

Slingloff said he parked at the Mt. Savage Bus Terminal at about 2 a. m. on the day of the accident. Hutzell, he said, had been driving behind him, but stopped when he did and turned off his lights.

The plaintiff said he started to

Charges To Be Filed In Auto-Cycle Accident

Three charges will be preferred against Mrs. Phyllis Corbin, 28, of 322 Paca Street, in conjunction with an automobile accident Thursday night which sent a woman cyclist to Allegany Hospital.

Miss Mary Kathryn Miller, 21, who was admitted to the hospital with a fractured right leg and severe facial laceration was reported by attaches last night as being in "satisfactory" condition.

Officer Kenneth W. Morrissey reported that the car operated by Mrs. Corbin heading west on Washington Street, cut across in front of the motorcycle being driven east on Washington Street by Miss Miller. Miss Rosemary Blake, 21, of 723 North Mechanic Street, also riding on the cycle was not seriously hurt. Charges will be preferred when Miss Miller recovers from her injuries, police said.
